

Bulletin—For All Corduroy in Print

Every school child from beginner to college student can make good use of a bulletin board in his or her room. It may be on the thumb tack variety or of the newer peg-board style.

Corduroy, always a popular back-to-school fabric, extends its scope this year, and is attractively printed and patterned for every-occasion wear.

SMARTEST BOYS' SHOE of the year are the monk strap models such as those shown here, with a grown-up look.

DRESS UP TRENDS for school wear are emphasized in shoes for little girls. Left, single strap; right, T-strap.

Light, Slim Footwear Is Also Sturdy

Not all the changes in the school room have come about above the desks. There's quite a difference in the shoes that go under them, too.

New leathers have made the heavy-looking oxfords as out-of-date as Mc Guffey's reader. Youngsters' shoes today display all the new leather textures crushed leather, lustered leather, matle leather, and many others.

And all of them, as well as the familiar polished calf and sturdy cowhide appear in up-to-the-minute styles. Slim, sturdy leather soles—with greater flexibility—show up on the best-looking school and dress shoes.

Beginning with the primary grades little girls now wear casual shoes only with skirts and sweaters. Dresses call for opera pumps or Mary Janes.

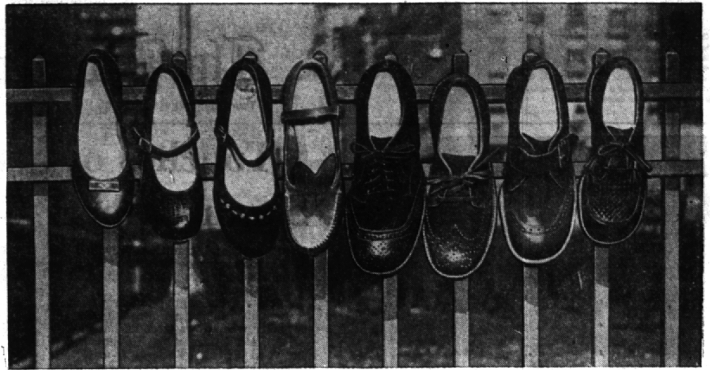

The most popular casual shoe for the first grade charmers will be a three- or four-eyelet oxford with lower ankle line and a moc-type toe. Saddles, kitties and ghillies follow in that order.

Encourage Grooming

Good grooming habits should start early. A simple "manicure set" of emery board and orange stick encourages grammar graders to keep their fingernails clean and neat.

SURE TO RING THE SCHOOL BELL are these handsome Ivy League sport shirts that are right in line with the new trend to a "neater look" for the classroom. Featured in the fashion curriculum for fall are bolder vertical stripes, trimmer horizontal stripes, wide spread and continental collars.

leather Mary Jane; glove leather moccasin with bunny ear throat. And for the boys: U-wing shrunken grain leather; semi low cut three-eyelet wing-tip; monk strap U-wing with brass buckle, two-eyelet tasse tie with embossed leather vamp.
