Pursuit of Hobby Brings Assignment at 1st Baptist

"My work with children is my hobby," says Muriel Prowse (Mrs. Frank), who this week is assuming the supervision of the children's division at First Baptist church. The new supervisor lives at 4320 Arlington drive, Beverly Hills.

Dr. Emil Kotts, pastor of the church, says Mrs. Prowse will coordinate the educational, musical, and social program for all activities of children from the cradle up to junior high age.

This will include the daily Baptist Nursery school, of which Mrs. Prowse has been co-director, along with Mrs. Edith Johnson, for the past three years.

MRS. PROWSE found an outlet for her hobby of children's work shortly after her association with First Baptist church eight years ago.

Within a year she became superintendent of the church school kindergarten, and it was four years after that when she began her teaching and co-direction at the daily nursery school, which this year has 85 enrolled, with a growing waiting list.

So well-versed is Mrs. Prowse in her hobby that she is frequently called upon to counsel church school teachers throughout the area of the Detroit Baptist missionary society.

LAST YEAR SHE completed a four-year summer session at the

...and the Good Fairy

Sally comes in every week or so. Last time she told us how the Good Fairy left her fifty cents for her two front teeth. She wanted to keep a dime for ice cream but entrusted the rest to us.

We're happy to have this little girl's trust. But we are more delighted that she is forming the excellent habit of saving at such a tender age.

See you next time one comes loose, Sally.
