Fall Registration Opens At Apprentice Theatre

Bruce Terry, 317 Berwyn, Birmingham, recently appeared in "Bernadine" at the Will-O-Way Playhouse. He took the part of Dave Gibbs, a "square" who could not make the "gang." He gave it a good try, which was very humorous, until the boys threw him out of their meeting place, "The Shamrock."

BRUCE TERRY

Bruce has been the stage electrician at Will-O-Way for the past three years and has doubled as an actor for "The Man Who came to Dinner" and "Goodbye My Fancy." He is also studying dramatics at Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre.

THE APPRENTICE Theatre, affiliated with Will-O-Way is now accepting applications for fall registrations.

Interested persons may apply now through Sept. 16 at the Apprentice Theatre on Long Lake road, or by contacting Mrs. Celia Merrill Turner, director of the theatre, for appointment.

Classes begin Monday, Sept. 17, and continue for 18 weeks. Year-round certificate courses are offered in all phases of theatre; acting, stage design, lighting, production of Bloomfield Village will host a dinner party Sept. 14 at Oakland Hills country club.

Sara Penn Hostess at Doll Party

Sara Penn planned a farewell luncheon recently for her friend, Kathleen Coyner, who moved to Elmhurst, Ill., with her parents.

Paper doll invitations with miniature ones for their dolls went out to Nancy Eads, Linda Wilson, Barbara Allen and Patty White. The girls all live in the neighborhood of the hostess's home on Maryland Blvd.

A separate luncheon table was set up for the dolls and centering the girls' table was a cake that Sara had baked and decorated with the guest of honor's name.

Pinned to Kathleen's frock was a crepe paper corsage. The girls and their dolls traveled to the Doll House in Berkeley and toured its workshop, purchasing a summer dress for Kathleen's doll, as a going-away present. They also presented her with an autographed book.

Missing the festivities was Meril Penn, who was away at camp.

Sheldons Visit Sons

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sheldon of Ann street, Birmingham, are back home after a week of flying around the country visiting their sons.

In Florida, they saw their son, Dick, pitch a ball game for the Palatka Tigers, a Detroit Tigers farm team, then rented a car to travel around Florida a bit. Dick will return this fall to Western Michigan college at Kalamazoo.

They then flew on to St. Louis, Mo., to visit son John, who is working in that city for the summer and will continue his studies at the University of Michigan this fall.

Kingswood Alums to Show Fashions

The auditorium at Kingswood school, Cranbrook, will be the scene of a fashion show and tea Sept. 11, benefitting the Ellet and Catherine Wallace memorial scholarship fund.

Boutique of fashions from Furs by Roberts will be modeled by Kingswood alums and professional models starting at 2 p. m.

Elizabeth Boyne is chairman of this year's events, an annual affair sponsored by Kingswood alumnae. Heading the ticket committee is Mrs. Harold Lynch, Jr., and Mrs. William Seibert is publicity chairman. Mrs. Henry Whitting, Jr., with her committee, is in charge of the fashion show and Mrs. John C. Maistrum heads the tea committee.

Among those serving as patronesses are Mrs. Roger M. Kves, Mrs. M. S. Perry Williams, Mrs. John F. Gordon, Mrs. George T. Trumbull, Mrs. Lawrence Howe, Mrs. Jess D. Chamberlin and Mrs. Syver Thingstad.

and stage managing. Theatre experience is not necessary.

The fall schedule also offers a choice of one hour classes meeting twice a week. Toddlers, four years of age and older, and children will meet in the morning, high school students in the afternoon, and adults in the evening.
