Tyson-James Wedding Solemnized Saturday

When they return from a northern Michigan honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tyson will make their home in St. Clair Shores.

They were married Saturday afternoon in Christ church Cranbrook, and greeted guests later at a reception in Meadowbrook country club.

THE BRIDE is the former Carole Diane James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. James of Wing Lake road, Wing Lake. Her husband's parents are the Edwin Lloyd Tysons of Groesic Pointe. Preceding Carole down the aisle were her attendants, gowned in waist-length frocks of white tulle accented by Dior blue bustles and back panels. They carried floral arrangements of delphinium and white roses tied with blue ribbons.

Carole's wedding dress was fashioned of rose point lace over silk with a chapel length train. Her tiered illusion veil fell from a cap of matching lace and her bouquet was composed of lilies-of-the-valley, Eucharist lilies and ivy.

CATHARINE Saibo was flower girl for her uncle's wedding. The bride was attended by Jocelyn Wiley of Shaker Heights, Ohio, Delores White and Nancy Jo Brewer of Detroit and LaRoyce Campbell of Ferndale.

Serving as ushers were George Cope, Gerald Lorenz, David Caruthers and Edward Daniel Barrett. Lawrence Daniel was best man.

your college-bound student would like most to receive a weekly issue of The Birmingham Eccentric

If it were possible, it would take quite a letter each week to inform your sons and daughters about the local goings-on. It's no easy matter to write a note each week, much less letting them in on all the news they want to know about. So... let THE ECCENTRIC fill in on all the details you happen to miss or that you don't have the time to write about.
