MRS. WILLIAM G. HAYES III

Hayes-Abel Wedding Rites Witnessed by 400 Guests

Nancy Janet Abel and William Glenn Hayes III were united in marriage Friday afternoon in Broad Street Methodist church, Cleveland, Tenn.

Rev. Sam Varnell, cousin of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 400 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aiken Abel of Cleveland, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. William Glenn Hayes of Westwood drive, Birmingham, are parents of the groom.

JANET chose for her wedding day a gown of pure silk peau de soie in an original design.

The bodice featured an overlay of imported re-embroidered French lace sparkling with seed pearls and sequins, and styled with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The bouffant skirt terminated in a cathedral train.

A seed pearl and sequin encrusted lace crown secured her fingertip length veil of French illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Five attendants, in ballerina length frocks of white satin and crystalite, preceded the bride down the aisle. Their dresses were designed with alternate panels of the satin and crystalite, scooped necklines, Empire bodices accented by bows, brief sleeves and circular skirts.

MRS. Coleman Sawyer of Cleveland, Tenn., was the matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Carol Downes of Hayville, La., Kay Graham of Bolton, Miss., Annama Newman of Cleveland, Tenn., and Erin Hayes of Birmingham, sister of the groom.

White satin bow bands held their face veils and their flowers were in shades of yellow and burnt orange in a cascade arrangement.
