

Bloomfield Village Entertains at Open Hunt Club For College-Bound Friends

The Melville Lindquists of Glengarry circle entertained for their daughter Marie, Wednesday evening of last week at a dance at Bloomfield Open Hunt club.

Some 80 of Marie's friends who had been her classmates at Birmingham high last semester attended, and as many of the group shortly will be leaving for college, it was a pre-school celebration.

Marie will leave sometime the first of September for Boulder, Colo., where she will attend the University of Colorado.

Ann McBrian of Morning View Terrace is leaving soon for Newark, N. J., where she will spend some time visiting a sorority sister before continuing on to Cornell where she will start her junior year.

Lucy McBrian is home from Chippewa Ranch at Weidman, Mich., where she has spent the summer as an assistant counselor. She will resume her classes this fall at Birmingham high. The girls are the daughters of the John Mc-

Maureen boarded a plane June 26 to spend the summer with her sister Sally (Mrs. Robert Baker) of Anchorage, Alaska.

The Garwoods had just returned to their home recently from vacation on Otsego Lake near Gay-Lord, when Maureen flew in and surprised her parents. Her remaining days of vacation will be spent in preparation to going to Michigan State when the annual campus trip begins.

Mr. and Mrs. John String and family have returned to their Overhill road home after a pleasant two week vacation that took them to see the sights of Niagara and then on to Danville, Va., to visit the John String seniors at their summer home.

While there, the Junior String took side trips that took them to Franconia Notch and up to the top of Cannon mountain on the tram way, much to the delight of Jack and Shelley String.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Ross of Yarmouth and their daughter Bonnie accompanied by Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McPerry, have just returned from spending two weeks at Owen Sound, Ont., where they were the guests of Jack and Shelley String.

Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Wheaton Candler of Williamsburg road have had their niece Diana Kent, daughter of the Stephen Martinidis Kents, visiting with them. The Kents formerly were Detroiters but now make their home in Norman, Okla.

While in Switzerland, they took the trip by cable car to the top of the Alps and viewed the ice and snow capped mountains. The beauty of the ice palace in the Alps carved out of a glacier, was another breath-taking sight.

Time was spent in Paris, France seeing all there was to see, before boarding the "United States" for their return voyage home.

There were a great many highlights throughout their journey. The visit north of the Arctic Circle to Norway, Norway, land of the midnight sun, was one of the most impressive sights the Orlunds could recall. Then there were the fjords along the Norwegian coastline which are noted for their grandeur.

While in Switzerland, they took the trip by cable car to the top of the Alps and viewed the ice and snow capped mountains. The beauty of the ice palace in the Alps carved out of a glacier, was another breath-taking sight.
