

MRS. WARREN HENRY FRAYNE

Venetian Lace Accents Illusion Bridal Veil

Venetian lace butterflies brought back from Europe by Diana Lee Montgomery accented the veil of illusion worn Saturday when she became the bride of Warren Henry Frayne. Seed pearls trimmed the neckline of her ivory Italian silk gown with a full skirt falling into a chapel train. She carried lilies-of-the-valley.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the double-ring candle-light rites in St. James Episcopal church before 200 wedding guests. Diana is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Francis Montgomery of Detroit and Warren's parents are the John Samuel Fraynes of Washington avenue, Birmingham.

ATTENDANTS in white lace sheaths over pink gowns Mrs. David DeWitt of Birmingham, matron of honor, Jill Freimore of Detroit and Mrs. Gilbert Bowen of LaGrange, Ill., bridesmaids. Back detailing was pink taffeta bows. Attached to their pink velvet headbands were short veils and they carried pink camellias.

Best man was David Frayne of the U. S. Army stationed in Colorado. Seating the guests were Gilbert-Bowen of LaGrange, Ill., David DeWitt of Tutbury road, Birmingham, and Jim Morse of Birmingham.

MRS. MONTGOMERY wore violets with her mauve Italian silk

Lost and Found Department Open At Rec Offices

Missing something? There's jackets, sweaters, wallets, and most anything else you can name waiting to be claimed at the recreation department's office in the fire wing of the city hall. The items were left behind by young playgrounders during the city's summer program.

Recreation Director Robert Girardin said craftwork which children had left with the department for display purposes can be picked up at the recreation office at this time.
