

Travel to Boston After Friday Rites

Wedding vows were exchanged by Martha Elise Dieterle and Paul L. Penfield, Jr., at 8 p.m., Friday, in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt was assisted by the Rev. Thornton B. Penfield, Jr., uncle of the groom from Yonkers, N. Y.

Martha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Dieterle of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, 152 Lakeside, Birmingham, are the parents of the groom.

PRINCESS lines fashioned the bridal gown of sheer Italian silk. The boat neckline was trimmed with alienen lace beaded in tiny seed pearls and the same motif of lace and pearls scattered over the skirt which swirled into a long train. Her short illusion veil was held in place with a lace cap beaded with seed pearls. She carried album lilies and ivy.

Five attendants in ballerina length dresses of yellow chiffon with matching caps preceded the bride down the aisle. The maids carried white daisies and the matron, white daisies and yellow roses.

Mrs. Peter M. Mann, sister of the bride from Ann Arbor, was matron, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard BeGole of Birmingham, Jerry Carter of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Frank S. Perkins and Barbara Payne, both of Detroit.

FRANK S. PERKINS II, of Detroit, was best man. Seating the guests were Richard E. Tarack of Detroit, Guilford L. Spencer of College Park, Md., George Kidder III, of Ann Arbor, Mass., and Peter M. Mann of Ann Arbor.

For her daughter's wedding and reception following at the Detroit Golf club, Mrs. Dieterle wore a powder blue silk organza and lace with matching hat. Paul's mother wore beige shantung and organza. The newlyweds are driving to Boston, Mass., where the bridegroom is a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. To start her trip Martha donned a blue sheath dress with bolero jacket and black accessories.

Booth in Command

Col. Bruce G. Booth, 4485 Parklane, Bloomfield township, is commanding officer of the 309th Civil Affairs Military Government group at the summer training encampment at Camp McCoy, Wis. The 309th CAMG group meets weekly throughout the year at Fort Wayne, Mich.

Rear View Limited Along Villa Street

A recent Saturday proved monotonous for the officer at the desk in the Birmingham police station.

At 9:30 a.m. he received a call from Vernon R. Haazenad, 1863 Villa. At 11:44 he talked to Burgess B. Butler, Jr., of 1867 Villa. When the phone rang at 12:40, it was Richard E. Smoker, of 1821 Villa.

Each of the Villa street residents reported that someone had stolen all the rear view mirrors off his car.

MRS. JOHN REA MAIN

Trip to Pocono Mountains Follows Wedding Saturday

In a 7:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday at Pontiac's First Presbyterian church, Maxine Hurt, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle B. Hurt of Pontiac, exchanged wedding vows and rings with John Rea Main, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Main of South Pemberton road, Bloomfield Hills.

Rev. Ralph P. Claggett came from Harrison to perform the rites in the presence of 250 guests.

After a reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the Pocono mountains in Pennsylvania. Upon their return, they will make their home in Ann Arbor where John will be studying for his master's degree at the University of Michigan and Maxine will be a senior at Eastern Michigan college at Ypsilanti.

For the rites and reception, Maxine selected a gown of French chantilly lace and bridal tulle over skinner satin. The lace bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and long wrist pointed sleeves. Two tiers of lace over tulle graced the hemline of the skirt which terminated in a chapel train.

HER headpiece of lace and pearls was in an Amore style giving a crown effect. Cascading from it was a fingertip length veil of pure silk French illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of white album lilies and ivy and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride asked her sister, Mrs. John Hogan of Pontiac, to be her matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Starkweather of Pontiac, Marilyn Main, sister of the groom, and Marilyn Hamilton of Muskegon.

Their wait length frocks were created of peacock blue taffeta in a princess style. The honor matron was distinguished by her masculine dress accented with white.
