Francis Gadds Celebrate Anniversary Aboard Ship

Mr. and Mrs. Francis O. Gadd arrived home Friday from a cruise of the Great Lakes aboard the S.S. South America. At the beginning of the five-day trip they became acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilkie of Birmingham who promptly became their traveling companions.

The last night on board was an exciting one. The Gadds were surprised and thrilled when they arrived at their table for the captain's dinner to find pay balloons with happy ninth wedding anniversary wishes suspended over the table and special little cakes for the occasion. The crew sang happy anniversary, making the evening complete.

Much to their surprise they found Mr. and Mrs. George Papovich of Crabtree road and their same daughter vacationing at the same lodge. The Deane went on to the table and special little cakes for the occasion. The crew sang happy anniversary, making the evening complete.

Good swimming weather just couldn't be found when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dezar of Meadow Way traveled in northern Michigan. They went first to Mackinac Island and then on to Phil De Grass lodge at Front Lake where they enjoyed long evenings around a fire.
