Residents Making Reservations For Association's Dinner-Dance

The fall social event of the Berkshire Hills Protective association will be a dinner dance at Birmingham Country club Friday evening, September 28. George Williams, chairman of arrangements, announced that tickets will be available in the area by the Valley Woods Women's group.

Dinner music by strolling musicians will be provided from 8 till 9 p.m. and dancing from 9 till 11 p.m. Bert Bierkiss, a familiar band leader to this area, and his group will provide the music. No business meeting but prizes and lots of fun await all members and guests. Reservations will close at 125 couples.

Robbie Robertson returned from Camp Mahn-Go-Tah See at Hald, to accompany his mother and brother on a trip east. Mrs. Ben Robertson of Forest lane took the boys to visit their grandmother, Mrs. William H. Couch of Duxbury, Mass.

Having perfect weather, the boys had ample opportunity to swim in the Atlantic. Sight-seeing through the New England states completed the trip for the trio.

The family went to Camp Grayling this past week to visit Mr. Robertson, captain in the field artillery in the Michigan National Guard at their summer camp.

The Walter Nyland family of Eastlake road have returned from an "outdoor" vacation at Hamilton lake, north of Ladington. Walter Nyland, an old hand at camping, purchased enough equipment (for purpose) to make future trips a necessity. The family had fun cooking their meals outdoors and swimming, fishing and hiking in the country side.

Mike and JoAnne Gline of Forcocktails before leaving for the island. Fireworks, dancing under the stars and strolling musicians were enjoyed. Breakfast was served in the wee morning hours before the trip home.

Harold Humbert Family See Shooting of Wild Bill Hickok

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Humbert, Diane, Joan and Susan of Leomoor drive returned from a two-weeks vacation touring Yellowstone National Park and visited Buffalo Bill Landmarks at Cody, Wyoming.

After spending several days in the same historic old town hall with the authentic re-enactment of the original trial. Before starting home the Humberts took in some of Chicago's tourist attractions.

On the return home, they went sightseeing through the Blackhills, Mount Rushmore and the Bad Lands. At Deadwood, S. D., the family attended a saga, the old west shooting of Wild Bill Hickok by Jack McCall.

The shooting is staged out on the street and the play continues in the same historic old town hall with the authentic re-enactment of the original trial. Before starting home the Humberts took in some of Chicago's tourist attractions.

Several of their Detroit friends occupied adjoining cottages, providing many evening card sessions. A good deal of their time was occupied visiting and sightseeing around Mackinac City, Petoskey and Houghton and Higgins Lakes.

Mrs. Brenton Schiffer, Randy, Barbara and Steven of Vernon drive received a big welcome home from the younger twins, George and Gregory and their father, Dr. Brenton Schiffer. Mr. Schiffer and the older children flew to Minneapolis to visit her mother, and enroute visited her brother, at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

The Philip Diesels of Stelmarr drive are back from their vacation at Atlanta, Mich. They reported the trout and bass fishing good and brought back evidence to prove it. While at the cottage the Diesels entertained a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Ford Ball of Detroit, house guests at the cottage for three days.

Linda Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of 13 Mile road entertained at a cook-out patio supper Saturday evening for a group of friends. The Johnsons are moving to Huntington Woods next month. Playing records, dancing and games were enjoyed by Pat McLellan, Dick Chaplin, Karen Stinson, John Schaffer, Pat Denton, Peter Mitchell, Sam Stinson and Linda.

Dr. and Mrs. Marion Seczewsk and son Mark returned to Chicago after spending a week with the Richard Aylward family on their drive. On Friday the Aylwards left for Chicago to visit Mr. Aylward's mother and will bring back daughter Debbie who has been spending several weeks with her grandmother and relatives in Chicago.

The Alexander Neads of Leomoor drive entertained 15 members of the Norton Lions Club Monday evening with cards and a mid-night supper.

Tar Kettle Bids
LATHRUP—Six bids, ranging from $819.66 to $990, on a 113-gallon tar kettle, were opened by the Norton Lions Club Monday night. They were turned over to Road Commissioner Vernon Hodges for study and recommendations.

JC Malpeli, age 3, of Westlady gave a birthday party Wednesday evening long to be remembered by neighborhood children.

When ice cream and cake were served, the call went out to park your guns, partner! To the surprise of mothers, the guns were parked on the garage floor as no law-abiding cowboy (girl) cats with his "shootin' irons" on.

Having fun at the Western party were Kathy and Chip Tallenger, Sherry, Ricky and Gordon Walker, Gary, Bill and Freddie Wertman, Jeffery, Sables, Kathy and Johnny Herrold, Paul and Vicky Reason and Amy Thompson.

The Charles Deuels of Eastlake road recently attended the wedding of Nancy Ann Rose and Clark Gerald Glasgow at South Haven. Arriving in town and guests of the Deuels, were Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander and daughter Linda from New York.

Also traveling to the wedding were Mrs. Deuel and Mr. and Mrs. Dianne Mark of Clawson, Delroy and her parents enjoyed an extended weekend at the Winchfield house lodge at South Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buckley, former residents of Valley Woods, have returned from Los Angeles for a short stay. They are visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Insana of Belleville, N.J.

Entering into the gala festivities of "Venetian Night" at the Detroit Yacht club were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gattward, the Charles Deuels and Mr. and Mrs. William Harris.

The couples gathered at the Gattward home on Bellvue trail for

Leo Lemke Family Home From Two Months Abroad

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Lemke and daughters Nancy and Susan, Wing lake road recently arrived home from a two months' trip abroad.

This combined pleasure and educational tour was the fifth of its kind for the professor and his wife who have conducted similar summer tours in previous years.

Besides the Lemke sisters were eight girls from Chicago who attended Barat college, Lake Forest, Ill. where Nancy Lemke will enter her senior year this fall.

Susan is a graduate of Marysville college, St. Louis, Mo. and is now taking her master's in French at University of Michigan. Also in the group were Virginia Kratage, West Bloomfield township, a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and Kathleen O'Toole of Bloomfield hills, a senior at Sacred Heart.

The group left June 13 aboard the Britannic and visited England, Bloomfield Hills school district via substitute teachers' pay. Section 3, Page 7.

France, the French and Italian Riviera, Italy, Switzerland, Germany and Holland. They returned aboard the Queen Mary.

While in Interlaken they met exiled King Simex of Bulgaria, who now lives in Spain. In Rome they saw Adenauer, who had just completed his audience with the Pope.

The group saw two plays in London, "Romanoff and Juliet" and "Reluctant Debutante," both to come to New York soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michaels, Thurber road, entertained Aug. 19 at a beach party at Sunningdale. Their guests were Detroit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mellen and children, Marjorie and Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Pott and sons, Kenneth and Garnet, Jr.

A recent bridal shower for Lois Arnold of Rosedale Park was given by Mrs. Ralph Bair, Sunningdale. Catering: the table, covered with a green cloth, trimmed in pink, held and set with pink and white dishes was a bride doll. On the buffet stood a music box with a brides maid on its top and the tune, appropriately, "Here Comes the Bride."

Following luncheon there were bridal games and prizes. The gift to the bride was a covered silver double vegetable dish, given by the group.

There were eight guests from Rosedale Park and Mrs. Joseph Johnson of Wing Lake.

Neighbors dropped in Friday morning at Mrs. Darling's home for a informal brunch in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Heber Fisk, Sheringham.

Mr. and Mrs. Vane Casson and children, June, Pat, Linda and Julie left for Chicago via air Friday where they boarded one of the new vista-dome trains for their trip to Los Angeles, Calif. where they will make their home.

Steven Mair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mair, Thurber road, celebrated his ninth birthday Wednesday with a theatre party followed by refreshments at his home. His guests were Pat and Nancy Dunham, Paula Cole, Johnny and Ralph Wilson and Charles Michaels.

Houseguest at the Mair home for the past two weeks has been Mrs. Mair's sister, Mrs. Walter Banacki of Flint. She visited them while her husband attended the National Guard training at Grayling.

In the bridal party of her brother, James Carter of Flint, Aug. 18, Mrs. Mair, a bridesmaid, wore a lace-topped yellow gown with empire neckline and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white mums. In her hair were yellow rose buds. Mr. Mair served as one of the ushers.

Visiting for the summer, Mrs. James Dowling and son Billy have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elliott, Thurber road. Mrs. Dowling is Mrs. Elliott's sister and wife of Capt. James Dowling, stationed in Germany. She and Billy will leave soon to join Capt. Dowling in Germany.

James Elliott, son of the Elliotts, stationed in Germany with the air corps, enjoyed a 25-day motor tour of Europe this summer with two boys visiting from the States.

Linda and Craig Weston, children of Dr. and Mrs. Earl P. Weston, Farms drive, are home from camp Westminster on Higgins Lake. Linda enjoyed a month's stay and Craig five weeks as he was selected as one of ten boys to take a week's trip to Boisblanc at the Straits where they enjoyed really roughing it.
