

Pierre Allard Claims Clair Auger as Bride

Pierre A. Allard claimed Claire L. Auger as his bride in nuptial mass at St. Columban church Saturday, with Father T. M. Kenny officiating at the double ring ceremony.

His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Auger, 1886 Bradford, Birmingham. Pierre is the son of Alphonse J. Allard, 56 Fifth Avenue, Thetford, Quebec.

Following a two-week stay at Jasper resort in Quebec, the newlyweds will be at home in Quebec after Aug. 18.

FOR HER wedding the bride chose a dress of sculpture folds and a sweep train appliqued with re-embroidered alencon lace and glittering jewelry. Her illusion tanger tip veil was held in place by an iridescent beaded and pearl crown coronet.

She carried a prayer book covered with white sprays of album lilies and trailing ivy tressements. Honor attendants, Lorraine Martin of Quebec, wore a dress of shell pink silk shantung and carried pink and white daisies, which matched her hat.

Aqua silk shantung dresses were chosen for the attendants. Denise Bergeron, Detroit, and Vivian Auger, Farmington. They carried aqua and white daisies, matching their daisy hats.

ALLARD ASKED Claude Villeneuve, of Quebec, to act as his best man. Seating guests were Egene Auger, Oak Park, and Claude Auger, Birmingham.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Maurice W. Auger. Mrs. Auger received guests in a dress of champagne lace with apricot accessories and matching orchids.

Breakfast followed the nuptial mass, with a reception at Maplewood club Saturday evening. Two hundred guests were present for the wedding. Out of town guests came from Quebec, Montreal, Brazil, California, Minnesota, Rhode Island and Florida.

Mrs. Allard left for Quebec in a black abash, with white picture hat and gloves and black patent shoes and bag. She is a graduate of Del-Mar. The groom graduated from Ecole d'arts-et-metiers, Thetford, Quebec, in electronics.

Janet Chisholm Accompanies Parents on Visit to Scotland

Trans-Atlantic hops are no new thing to young Janet Chisholm, a six-year-old miss, who with her parents, the William S. Chisholm, of Overhill road have just returned from a month's visit to Scotland.

It was Janet's third trip abroad and she was of course greeted with enthusiasm by her grandmother, Mrs. A. Chisholm of Edinburgh, and by other members of the family.

Janet and her parents planned their trip so it would coincide with the senior Mrs. Chisholm's 84th birthday. A family dinner was given in her honor July 19 at the George Hotel in Edinburgh.

The Chisholm "three" toured Scotland, around the west coast their travels took them to Montrose, where Mr. Chisholm was born and reared; to Blairgowrie Castle, Inverness, in the northern part of Scotland; around the west coast region, and through the Chisholm country, "Strathglass" home of the Chisholm Clan. In all, they traveled some 2,000 miles before boarding a plane and winging back to the States.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick and family of Hupp Cross road have recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Kilpatrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woody at their summer home on Crooked Lake near Petoskey in northern Michigan.

Borothy Green, daughter of the Albert Greens of Morningview terrace, is spending the summer at Camp Farwell in Wells River, Vt. She has been a camper for three years and this year she is a counselor-in-training, for tennis, boating and swimming, and has a cabin of seven juniors. Borothy will return to her classes in the fall at Birmingham high where she will be in her senior year.

Chip Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gorman of Glenngary road, arrived at the age of seven Saturday and celebrated the event by entertaining a group of his friends at a luncheon and theatre party. Attending were Marshall Kearney, Erik Hansen, Randy Smith, Stephen Wedge and Bruce Lafer.

Chip's parents are flying to Atlanta, Ga. today to spend a week visiting Mrs. Gorman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Hennessy. While their parents are away, the Gorman children are looking forward to having their grandmother Mrs. C. Lee Wetzel visit them.

Another boy who celebrated a recent birthday is Danny Nichols of Overhill road. Danny with his parents, brother Bob and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Foster of "Back Acres" recently, Mich., spent a week recently at Cherokee Lodge on Pickwick lake.
