

Beardslee-White Wed In Candlelight Service

Almost 250 guests gathered in the Lutheran church of the Redeemer for the candlelight service at which Clara Louise White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. White, Charing Cross road, Birmingham, became the bride of Verlyn Arthur Beardslee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Beardslee, Perry, Mich.

Bishop M. D. Ormston was assisted by the Rev. Virgil Raley at the rite Tuesday evening. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Hugh White.

Reception lace over satin and tulle, was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown which had a stewart collar and billowing bouffant skirt. Her short veil was topped with a headpiece in matching lace, edged in pearls. She carried a white Bible with lily-of-the-valley and white rosebuds.

MRS. HERBERT Hendricks, of Davidson, wore a cotillon blue crystaletto, princess style ballerina length dress with bolero jacket as matron of honor. She carried a white basket with pink demure roses, pinnocchio mums and ivy. A large white open crowned hat completed her ensemble.

Chapel in Germany Scene of Sunday Vows

Centerville chapel in Augsburg, Germany, was the scene of a double-ring ceremony Sunday which united in marriage Jessie Beth Flury and Arvid Emmanuel Kallen, Jr.

The bride's pale pink ribbon-crochet dress with a v-neckline had three-quarter length sleeves. The effect was that of heavy pink lace in a daisy pattern and the skirt was gently flaired. Her hat consisted of two bands of ribbon daisies and had a small pink nose veil.

Jessie's parents are the Richard Flury, 26701 Carol, Franklin Village, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid E. Kallen of Indian Village Manor, Detroit, are the parents of the groom.

MRS. WILFRED L. Sterzik, sister of the groom, was gowned in pale blue silk-organza patterned along princess lines.

Mr. Wilfred L. Sterzik of Frankfurt, Germany was best man. Mrs. Kallen wore an orchid and blue silk printed dress with a white background. She flew to Europe in July to attend her son's wedding and visit her daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Sterzik, whose husband is stationed in Frankfurt.

Dinner for 25 at the Volk cafe was served on the terrace which overlooks the city of Augsburg. The first two days of their honeymoon was spent in Garmisch, followed by a tour of Switzerland and Austria. For traveling the new Mrs. Kallen donned a white and brown flecked suit. The newlyweds will live in Augsburg for two years where he will be stationed.
