

Bride's Uncle Assists In Belf-Milroy Rites

MRS. ROBERT CHARLES BELF

The Rev. Robert Milroy assisted in the wedding of his niece, Shirley Jean Milroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCall Milroy, to Robert Charles Belf, son of Dr. Harold Belf, Ponchartrain drive, Detroit, at Kirk-in-the-Hills church.

The Rev. Joseph Blackburn, of Kirk-in-the-Hills, performed the Saturday afternoon ceremony.

Ivory silk-tafteta was chosen by the bride for her gown, which had circle neckline and long sleeves edged with alencon lace. The skirt of unpressed pleats ended in a chapel train. A velvet bow held the veil in place and the bride fashioned her own cap of ivory straw.

under white nylon, with blue hats and carnation bouquets.

Harold Charles Belf Jr., Detroit, served his brother as best man. Seating guests were the bride's brother, John H. Milroy, Detroit; Richard DeBoard, Berkeley; Paul Armstrong, Garden City; and Bob Messinger, Grand Rapids.

MATRON OF HONOR. Mrs. Philip J. Ivey, Chatham, Ont., wore white nylon over yellow taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and blue carnations. A yellow cartwheel hat completed her ensemble.

The four bridesmaids, Mrs. John H. Milroy, Detroit, Patricia Aldridge, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. William Osgood, Hillsdale, wore similar costumes of ice blue taffeta.

guests in a deep blue silk dress, with matching shoes and white hat. A reception followed the wedding at Oakland Hills country club.

Following a week's wedding trip the Belfs will live in Kansas City, Mo., where the groom is a senior medical student at Kansas City college of osteopathy.

For her going away outfit the bride chose an air force blue silk suit, white shantung hat, and patent leather shoes and bag.

Both graduates of Hillsdale college, Belf is a member of Delta Sigma Phi and Mrs. Belf is a Pi Beta Phi.
