Charles St. Thomas Family Planning Move to New York

A business promotion for Charles St. Thomas will necessitate a move to New York, just six weeks after they purchased their home on Chisholm trail. Mrs. St. Thomas has just returned from a New York trip and expects to return again shortly to search for a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Spooner are entertaining relatives from northern New York for a few days. They are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Spooner and their children, Cindy Barbara, and Donald.

The Tompkins of Pickering road

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kirk, West Maple, were pleased to have their daughter, Mrs. F. E. Conn Jr. and her two children with them for five weeks. They returned to their home in Phoenix, Ariz. last week.

The M. H. Casey family, Whyaall road, who just returned from New York where they visited relatives are now entertaining guests from there for one week.

Mr. John Baker Jr. left a few days ago for Ohio. Mrs. Baker will meet him today and they will proceed to Kensington, Pa. to visit Mr. Baker's father.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White, Colby lane, left by plane for Denver, Colo. to visit their son James Stay and his family for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fishman, Orinoco circle, spent the weekend in Cleveland, Ohio visiting relatives. Their daughter Susan accompanied them.

Bernard Damman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Damman, who was in drive celebrated his first birthday, Sunday. His two sisters and four brothers enjoyed the birthday cake with him.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark Dale, Pickering road, are leaving Saturday for Big Boulder Lodge, Wis. where they will spend ten days. Their three children, Bob, Jim, and Julie will be with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Nelson, of Old Trinity court, returned from Chicago Sunday evening. They visited Mr. Nelson's parents while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Baske recently moved into their home on Castle drive. Their former home was Detroit. Mr. Baske is an engineer with Chevrolet engineering.

Chuck Erlanson Is High Point Winner at Horse Show

Chuck Erlanson of W. 14 Mile road, sister Adrienne, and Ethel Williamson drove to New Mexico and brought back two racing quarter horse fillies. They visited Mexico and came back by way of Boulder City, Colo. where they looked over the Arabian stock at the Van Vleet ranch.

Chuck's 4-H horse-judging team representing Oakland county, won the championship trophy at Michigan State university. He went to the Allstate Allagan and with over 500 horses from 7 states competing, was high point winner of the show of all age groups, and came home with the coveted champion horsemanship trophy.

The following week, he won the horsemanship trophy at the Holly show.

Last week Chuck took part in promoting the Sports Guide rodeo and horse show at the Hazel Park track. During the televised portion he appeared with Sage Brush Shorts and was introduced as the outstanding junior rider of Michigan.

Later in the evening Chuck came through with three trophies making him high point winner of the Sports Guide show and was presented with the championship trophy.

The Sports Guide show provides funds to send 200 underprivileged children to summer camp and drew a crowd of 16,000 spectators.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nyland of Eastlady road had a pleasant surprise Sunday afternoon. On their way to the state of Maine, Mr. Nyland's brother and family, the Robert Nylands of Minneapolis, Minn., dropped in for a brief visit. Prof. Robert Nyland is in the research division of an agricultural department of the University of Minnesota. The young Nylands, Tommy and Jim, enjoy traveling because their families are "camping out" from Minnesota to Maine. A fully equipped trailer is packed and ready at all times for any weekend the Robert Nylands have free.

Visiting the Daniel Adams home on Eastlady were Mrs. Adam's mother and family, the Donald Camerons of Bakerfield, Calif. Craig Adams had his cousin, Donald as a houseguest for a week. The boys enjoyed swimming and country hikes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Collins of Orchard lane announce the birth of a daughter, Kitty Gail. Kitty weighed only 3 lbs. 14 oz. at birth so will have to wait at Beaumont a few weeks before meeting her sisters Cindy and Candy.

Al and Bernie Hartmann of Eastlady took the family to Traverse City for a few days, staying at a resort with a cottage on the lake. Swimming and boating entertained the three little Hartmann girls. Before leaving, the Hartmanns made arrangements to spend an evening with two other area families vacationing at Traverse City. Pat and Bill Harris and the William Firmans of Westlady met the Hartmanns in town and had dinner together.

If mother and daddy can give a party and not have a special event to celebrate, so can he, says Gary Leeking. Saturday afternoon Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Leeking of Smallwood, invited a group of Gary's friends over for a hot dog roast and games.

Seated around the picnic table were Tim and Ricky Guenther, Richie Westbury, Kenny Kittle, Dave and Gordie Shull and Freddie Nicholson.

The Leekings have as their houseguest Mrs. Leeking's niece, Susan Kennedy of Grosse Pointe, who will be here the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Guenther of Plumwood lane entertained at cocktails and dinner Mrs. Daniel Horden, Mrs. Roland Pauls of Detroit and Pfc. and Mrs. Patricia Stan of Maryland. Pfc. Stan and his wife brought their son, Joey home for his first visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans H. Fredrick

SOUTHFIELD — First person to declare public intention of running for a council post in the Dec. 3 City of Southfield charter election was Fred Crona, 28768 Everett.

Crona, a Chrysler employee and Southfield woods resident of several years, said he was primarily interested in honest government and getting the city off on the right foot. He appeared last week at a charter commission revision meeting.

Lightning Strikes J. G. Wolter Home

BLOOMFIELD — Severe electrical storm Saturday evening caused considerable damage to the home of Dr. James G. Wolter, 4494 Chamberlain drive.

Falling debris from the chimney struck by lightning, crashed through the roof, causing damage to the interior, and severing power and telephone lines.

Although there was no fire, Franklin fire department answered the call to remove large portions of brick from the chimney, loosened by the jolt.

Alone in the Wolter home at the time, watching TV in the den were Nancy Wolter, 13 and Lynn Ivey, 11, the bolt missing them by
