Hostess Club Officers Plan Area Reception-Open House

The executive committee for the Beverly Hostess Club enjoyed a luncheon meeting at the Hillcrest home of Mrs. S. J. Whittlesey last week. Plans were completed for a reception-open house to be held Sept. 11 at the home of Mrs. Bradley Stephenson on Riverside drive.

Anticipating that all area women will be able to meet and become better acquainted with their neighbors, block hitesses will soon be calling to explain the arrangements and issue invitations to the party.

Assisting Mrs. Stephenson for the event, besides the block hostesses, will be the club executive committee, Mrs. William F. Ross,

Visitors from Venezuela Guests of George Monroes

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison M. Dunblaine were the weekend hosts to Mrs. Goodhue's sister, Mrs. Norman L. Reid and her husband and niece and nephew, Judy and Bob. The Reids reside in Bay Village, Ohio.

The Goodhues were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Flack of Birmingham and on this occasion had the pleasure of meeting actor Caesar Romero, guest artist at the Northland Tent Theatre. After dinner, the party, which included Carole Goodhue and Kirk Flack, attended the Romero performance of "Strictly Dishonorable."

Home from Japan and back to civilian life, Jerry Borough with wife, Martha, and daughter, Leslie Helen, are guests at the Edacousfield home of J. J. Dorosuch. Happy to be back, the Dorosuchs are enjoying the entertainment provided by welcoming old friends in the area. The young family will shortly occupy an apartment in Birmingham.

Mary Borough will return this weekend from Camp Crystal Lake where she has been for seven weeks.

Mrs. Brad Stephenson of Riverside has been entertaining a house guest, Kay Cassine of Cincinnati. The girls lunched at Devon Gables on Friday. Attended Melody Circus one evening with their dates and held almost constant open house for friends who dropped in for conversation and cokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harling and children, Barbara and Patty, are again at their Birchwood home after an enjoyable two weeks vacation in northern Canada. One week was spent at Fern Cottage resort near Atherly for participation in many planned activities, including swimming, bowling, golf and dancing.

The final week was spent at Back Bay Lodge on Lake La Vigne, where Mr. Harling enjoyed excellent fishing and was able to satisfy his full daily quota of pickerel and walleyed pike.

Daughter, Barbara, joined her father in fishing and landed her first pike. En route home, the Harlings stopped at a Georgian Bay resort and later completed the trip to the mainland by ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hodgson with children Sallie and Robbie are home on Bedford after a vacation spent at Timber Bay, Canada where the Hodgsons have a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron with children, Bruce, Linda and Roger are back on Devonshire after an enjoyable vacation at Rennie lake near Traverse City. The Camerons are enthusiastic about the excellent trout fishing experienced on Boardman river, as well as the superb scenery in this location. Enroute home, the family stopped at Harbor Springs to spend some time at Fisherman's Paradise.
