Dec. 19 Deadline
For Police School

Young Birmingham area men interested in joining the Michigan state police and who wish to get into the first training school to be organized after January must file their applications with the state civil service commission by 5 p.m. Dec. 19.

A second filing limit date of 5 p.m. January 30 will qualify applicants for schools to be organized later in the spring.

New pay increases have made the trooper's job among the most highly paid in the police services and higher than in many other lines of employment. Pay in the trooper rank alone increases to $7,000 a year, not counting fringe benefits.

MANY OTHER benefits, including job security and a pension at the end of 25 years of service which also provides for the widow, make the position unusually attractive.

Application blanks may be obtained at any state police post or by writing to the state civil service commission or the Michigan state police at Lansing.

The appointment of Richard S. Hanel as marketing administration manager is announced by the general marketing division of the Mercury Division.

Hanel will direct all administrative activities of Mercury's General Marketing Office and will supervise the Administrative, the Sales Training and the Systems and Data Processing departments.

For the past two years Hanel has been president of Ford (France) S.A., and prior to that was manager of program planning and assistant to the general manager at Ford of France at Poissy, France. He joined Ford Division in 1949 where he was associated with the product and facility programming activities.

Hanel and his family plan to make their home in Birmingham.

Clubhouse Break-in

Clubhouse at Stonycroft Golf Course, E. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, was broken into last week, but nothing was taken. Police said entrance was made by removing a screen and breaking a window.
