Lebow's Embassy Standard

combines all the refinements of hand workmanship that you'd expect in the finest custom made suits. This is Lebow's deluxe model for those who want to enjoy the thrill of having a lot of superlative tailoring details in their clothes.

See the hand-sewn bellows pockets. Note the unusual way in which the sleeve buttons are raised and ornamented with button holes. Use the convenience of the inside change pocket. Feel the luxury of the Bomberg lined trousers.

These are only a few extras of Embassy Standard—they total 14 in all. We would like very much to show you this ultimate in tailoring proficiency and urge you to select one for your wearing pleasure.
