Sixty Guests Attend Party At Graefield Apartments

The holiday season got off to a good start with a large party in the Graefield Terraces for all unmarrieds living in terrace apartments east of Woodward avenue.

Co-hosts were Carl Widney and Milton Hanley, Jr., of Graefield, who opened both their apartments for the occasion. Expecting about 30 guests at first, they were happily surprised at a final turnout of 60.

There was dancing and refreshments, and later, about 30 guests adjourned to a local restaurant for dinner.

Along with the holiday parties, there was also a birthday party. Master Jimmy Carey, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carey of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, celebrated his sixth birthday by serving ice cream and cake to five of his friends at the home of his parents.

Recent presidential campaign period, Mrs. Reines presided at the campaign headquarters of Senator Hennings. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reines attended an election eve party held at the Senator's headquarters.

Mr. Robert Burch of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, was hostess to two tables of bridge at her home recently. Those attending were Mr. Jack Ward, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Lawrence Perry, Mrs. Robert Ball, Mrs. George Brockway, Mrs. Douglas Bain, and Mrs. Robert Dittler.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Burch hosted weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bruce Stahl, who recently left their Graefield terrace apartment preparatory to moving to Birmingham. Ala. Mr. Stahl is associated with Linde Air Products Corp. and has been transferred to their Birmingham office.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carey of Witherbee road had recent weekend guests. Coming from various parts of Canada, were Mrs. Carey's mother, Mrs. Madeline Peterson of Leamington, Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Whittall from Harrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen of Kingsville.

The Troyton Manor Home Extension unit met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roger Cleary of Witherbee road. The topic for discussion was accessories in the home.

For the meeting, Mrs. Cleary took advantage of the discussion at last month's meeting on Christmas decorations, by having her home decorated in the current holiday theme.

Miss Wantha Ann Hedgecock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anson Hedgecock of Witherbee road, will arrive at her parents' home Saturday to spend her Christmas vacation. Miss Hedgecock is a student at Central Michigan college at Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gologly of Troyton Manor have as houseguest Mrs. Gologly's mother, Mrs. Loda Dickerson of Perryville. Mrs. Dickerson first spent some time in Cincinnati visiting Mrs. Gologly's sister, then returned to Birmingham with the Gologlys when they terminated their Thanksgiving visit in Cincinnati. She expects to remain until after Christmas.

St. Helena's Guild of Holy Name church will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, at 8 p.m. in St. Ann's Hall. Hostesses are Mrs. William Andrews, Mrs. Hugh Humphrey and Mrs. Al Orzechowski. A card party and gift-exchange will be held. The December project for the guild is making up baskets of Christmas toys, clothing and food for a needy family. Mrs. Coyle Fisher, chairman will accept these articles at this time.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
