Farm and Garden Club Holds Annual Party, Gift Exchange

Mrs. Fred Keller, Wing Lake road, was hostess Dec. 3rd to the Wing Lake Woman's National Farm and Garden club in her home overlooking Wing Lake. This was the regular December meeting and the annual Christmas party.

Following a brief business meeting, there was a Christmas program arranged by Mrs. Allen German. Christmas cards were sung accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Robinson. Readings were given by Mrs. Earl Weston, Mrs. Ralph Darling and Mrs. John Doyle. A gift exchange completed the party.

The tea table was decorated in a holiday festive motif and Mrs. Edgar Debandt and Mrs. Joseph Johnson poured.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, of Worthington roads are Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay McDonald of Winter Park, Fla. They will remain for the Christmas holidays.

Betty and her mother have been busy sewing, shopping and lunching at Stauffer's and Devon Gardens. Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Dayton, Ohio will join them for Christmas making it the first time in a number of years that the whole family has been together.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darling, Sunningdale were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Paulson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Voorhes, both of East Lansing. The three couples have their summer homes in northern Michigan in the same colony.

Following dinner, they enjoyed movies of the closing of their cottages, Halloween up north and interesting scenic views of the trip enroute home from the lake.

Mrs. Darling recently gave a surprise birthday luncheon for her neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Johnson. Guests were Mrs. Robert Stone, Mrs. Darby Worman, Mrs. Frank Brainscher and Mrs. Julius Pochel.

Together, they presented the guest of honor with a pair of driving gloves. Bridge was played in the afternoon.

Busy with birthdays this past week have been Mr. and Mrs. William Fraser, Worthington road when their son Sandy 8, and daughter Susan 18, born five days apart, each had a party.

Sandy's party was on his day, Dec. 1st, with ice cream and cake and games for Paul Coughlin, George Walker, Lamont Richter, Dorman Dickerson, Stewart Sessions, Tim Hertzler and Jeff Worman.

On their last evening before returning home, they had a Sukiyaki dinner, served in true Japanese style at Fuji's restaurant. Mrs. Kinsey recalls the last time they had such a dinner was in Japan in 1952, when they visited there for 10 days on a round-the-world trip. The Hanselmans spent two weeks in Key Biscayne, Fla., enjoying the sights and beautiful weather before returning home to ready themselves for their week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsey Entertain House Guests from Far-Away Places

Entertaining people from far away places is very intriguing the John Kinseys of Hylane drive have discovered. The weekend of Dec. 1, they had as houseguests, Bryne Farmdale of London, England, and Ken Bishop of Leicester, England.

On the evening of Dec. 4, the Kinseys served cocktails before taking their guests to the Huron river hunting and fishing club in Farmington for dinner.

Their guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin DiCarvallo of Sao Paulo, Brazil, and Marcel Lemoine of Rio De Janeiro. Another guest was Mrs. Leon Hanselman of Hylane.

The John Kinseys and the Leon Hanselmans of Hylane drive returned home after spending an eventful week in New York. While there they saw "Fair Lady", "Most Happy Fellow" and "Damn Yankee".

On their last evening before returning home, they had a Sukiyaki dinner, served in true Japanese style at Fuji's restaurant. Mrs. Kinsey recalls the last time they had such a dinner was in Japan in 1952, when they visited there
