

Handicapped Club Members Attend Two Yule Parties

This has been a busy month for members of the Metropolitan Activities Club (MACS) for the handicapped. Saturday afternoon, they were entertained along with others from the Detroit area, at a Christmas party given by the Junior League.

The event included a tour of Cranbrook's planetarium and gifts of poinsettia plants for all who attended. Transportation to Cranbrook Institute of Science, scene of the party, was provided by the Junior League. Entertainment was by Kirk-in-the-Hills bell ringers. Sunday evening, the MACS gathered at their regular meeting place, the Birmingham YMCA, for their own Yule party. Turkey dinner with all the trimmings was prepared by members and friends of the club.

Guests included Y director Edwin Kirbert and his wife and the Mark Smiths of Birmingham and the Lauren Whites of Ferndale. Mr. Smith was presented a gift in appreciation of the many hours he has devoted to calling square dances for the club. Mrs. White presided for the group with a coffee urn from Ferndale Sororistoma. Members sang carols and exchanged gifts around a Christmas tree and each also brought a gift for distribution to crippled children in Oakland county.

The MACS plan to go Christmas caroling at Harper hospital Dec. 21

of the moment gives us a small opportunity to dig them into you and although it might pain you a bit, it will get you off your feet—it may get you going!

How? Well, here's HOW!

The SPANISH BARBECUE CART

Made of brown wicker, it has room for plates, glasses, cups, silver (or chromium) ware, bottles (of milk), casseroles (2), dible damask doilies, napkins (or paper), salt, pepper, sauces and a receipt for $34.00. (It is perfectly proper to display the receipt.)

The SPANISH COCKTAIL CART

for those who have already set aside some dough for the income tax, this item could be considered a "deductible expense" because no one could afford it for purely personal pleasure—at $180.00. It is a gem—in fact rather adorable.

Now here we go on MISCELLANY. This group includes the things that might just fill the bill for McClain—for those people who "have just everything and can buy whatever they want"—UNLESS YOU GIVE IT TO THEM FIRST. Think of it! The joy of giving them something they never saw or even thought of! Here they are!

GARDENADE—a metal seat 14" x 12" and 11" high, green, for sitting on (if their joints are slightly creaking) while they weed and cultivate the garden. If their knees caps are rusty it is simply turned over and they kneel on sponge rubber . . . $4.50.

FIRE LIGHTER—any which would be "in" with one of these in her bag of tricks. Get one. Needs only two hands, a sense of direction and a little courage to operate it:—

- All brass, 29" long . . . $15.00
- Brass & Black . . . 29" long . . . $12.50
- All Brass, 12" long . . . $12.00
- Brass & Black, 12" long . . . $9.50

BBHO (BARBECUE HANDOUTS)—Four of them cost only $8.95. They are like small frying pans 7 1/2" in diameter with 9" handles of hardwood. The pans are chrome . . . they also have LEATHER THONGS to hang them up with. Terrific!

GUARDSMAN—DeLuxe set of barbecue utensils. A knife, fork and turner of stainless steel about 22" long, with cork handles and LEATHER THONGS . . . $14.95.

7—We think it's a FRYING PAN . . . but if you hold it up and whack it, people from miles around will come running to see if it is a dinner, a fire or simply a situation. If you are down to earth by now, we will simply say that "you can fry venison (17) EGGS in it at ONCE" . . . only $14.95.

ST. FRANCIS—the patron saint of birds, is available in:—

LEAD—a 15" bowl with a bird perched on the rim and 17" St. Francis with bird in hand. Over-all height 25", over-all price $138.00.

STONE—Italian hand-carved figure, 29" high for $123.50 (a paltry sum for a lover of beauty) . . .

ST. FRANCIS IN A SHELTER—with a bird in hand and two at his feet, 20" high . . . $28.50. . . same guy with a 12" high at his feet and 15" high, no shelter . . . $16.50.

IVY RING—for ivy league devotees. 8" diameter. White . . . $2.50.

LEAD LILY—spray nozzle . . . all for $48.00.

CHROME LOPPING SHEAR—tubular handles, Flexi-grip, no shock . . . $7.50 . . . same in HEDGE SHEARS . . . $7.95

SOIL TEST KITS—a dirty business but available for finding out if IT will grow in your soil . . . for $2.98, $5.89, $14.95 and up.

KRIS KRINGLE KORRAL—a 10 foot red wire fence about 6" high . . . in 9 sections (all hooked together) to go around the TREE . . . $1.98.

CHRISTMAS TREE STAND . . . designed to:—

1. Hold the tree erect
2. Keep it that way
3. Make it easy to get it that way.
4. Easy on the pocket-book . . . $2.25

FOOT SCRAPER . . . simply sock it into the ground after you pay $1.19 for it.

NET WREATH . . . a few from N. Carolina for lovers of artistry . . .

- 11 1/2" wreath . . . $10.00
- 18" wreath . . . $22.50

BRAZIER COVER . . . for 22 and 24-inch braziers $4.95

INDOOR GREEN HOUSE . . . this plastic job is ideal for many operations such as:—

Starting seeds . . . starting tubers . . . growing African Violets, gloxinias, begonias, etc. All parts of this unit are available separately. Total cost (including trays, wicks, greenhouse, light and timer) . . . $31.85
