Mrs. Wallace Weitzel Entertains Eastern Star Group at Luncheon

To bring Christmas joy to children was the aim of the Christmas luncheon party held recently at the home of Mrs. Wallace Weitzel of Haddington road. Those attending were Eastern Star worthy matrons of Oakland county and county officers of which Mrs. Weitzel is the president.

Each guest brought a gaily wrapped toy that will be distributed to needy families in Oakland county.

Mrs. Weitzel's group of the Eastern Star also have learned of a little old lady, 101 years old, living at the Novi convalescent home. She is a very spry and perk little person who loves costume jewelry, perfume and puts her lipstick on every morning.

The group plans on making her Christmas a bright and cheery one by taking her a few of the luxuries she loves.

Cub scouts of pack B-34 presented a remarkable display of Christmas gifts they made for their parents at the December pack meeting at Pembroke school. The workmanship and ingenuity were outstanding for boys of this age. A movie "The Littlest Angel" was also enjoyed by the cubs and their parents.

Birmingham Newcomers club held its December board meeting at the home of hospitality chairman Mrs. Wendell Butler of Burnley drive, last Thursday afternoon.

Coffee and dessert were served to 20 attending.

The "Christmas Story", an original play written by sixth grade students at Eastover school was presented Tuesday evening, in the school's multipurpose room.

It was directed by Christie Sadler, a fifth grader, and Susan Johnson, a sixth grader. A large turnout was on hand to applaud these hard working youngsters.

Cocktails were served at the home of the Robert Holts of Haddington road before the six couples left for the dance at the Lockmoor club in Grosse Pointe. Those joining in the fun were the Reid Mac Guidwins, John Hoegs, B. C. Mohneys, William Gillespies and Arthur Stables.

Along with making party plans for the holidays, the Alfred Kenificks of Burnley drive are looking forward to having their daughter, Mary Ellen, a junior at Hilldale, attend there.

Enjoying their new home on Orchard Hill drive are the Robert J. Worrells of Palo Alto, Calif. They
