Fred E. McClearys Hosts At Surprise Dinner Party

The Fred E. McClearys of Riverside entertained with a surprise dinner on Dec. 12th in celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of their son with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robin McCleary of Ferndale.

Preceding the dinner, guests were entertained for cocktails by the host's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Lane of Latham. Among the guests present were the Robin C. McClearys' younger daughter, Barbara, and their married daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kennedy of Detroit. Also present were the Lane daughters, Laurie and Cony.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Guilmet of Riverside were pleased to note daughter Dennie's progress and continued interest in their work when they made a trip on Sunday night to Marygrove to hear Dennie sing with the school choir.

Dennie's interest in choir singing started in junior high, continued through high school and now has reached a stage of real accomplishment in college.

Dennie is home from college for the Christmas vacation and will be happily visiting with former school mates.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilde of Wentworth entertained a group of neighbors last week. Refreshments were served and the Wildes showed Hawaiian slides taken during their island trip this fall.

Neighbors present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ray and daughter, Janice, Mrs. Harry Coordes and son, John and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bommarito and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staroba and son, Bill.

The Sylvan Lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Harbage has been the scene of two recent cocktail parties for the entertainment of friends in the last two weeks. At the first party the 25 guests were from the Yakaleer chapter of Dale Carnegie, last Sunday, guests were friends and business associates.

The Arthur Zebedeos of Riverside have returned from a trip to Fort Harrison and Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Zebedeo attended the meetings of the advisory committee for the national professional golfers association. Men attending the meetings were from many points in the United States.

The Zebedeos continued their trip in Florida with visits to St. Petersburg, Key Largo, Sarasota and Bradenton, including a drive over the sunshine skyway.

Daughter Cheryl was sure she was happy about the sunshine skyway trip when she realized that the bridge, which extends for miles, with the ocean on one side and the gulf on the other, is 15 stories above the water line. It looked like a high dive and a long swim to Cheryl.

The Zebedeo trip included a number of excursions and planned entertainment for wives of the committee. The American airline's "Golden Falcon" carried the Zebedeos to Florida and Mrs. Zebedeo was impressed with the smoothness and speed of the flight, since they left a Michigan temperature of 18 degrees and four hours later were in Florida's warm 75 degree sunshine.

When the Zebedeos returned, Mrs. Zebedeo's Florida barefoot sandals seemed completely unusable for the snow and slush into which she stepped from the plane. Bill Zebedeo is home from Dartmouth college for Christmas vacation.

Alexander Nead Meets Member Of Family on Caribbean Cruise

Alexander Nead of Leemore drive returned Saturday after spending a week in Havana, Cuba where he joined his brother-in-law from South America who is on a Caribbean cruise. This was Al's first personal contact with any member of his family in 25 years.

Mr. Nead's parents, who formerly lived in the United States and South America, went to live in Europe and for many years have been behind the iron curtain. Mr. Nead's brother-in-law recently visited in Europe and was successful in contacting Al's parents and family and had much welcome news to relate.

On Saturday evening, the Alexander Neads and the Marvin Clines chaperoned the holiday teen-age dinner dance at the Birmingham Community House.

On Saturday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood of Marimoor drive entertained 18 guests with cocktails and buffet supper for members of the medical department and their wives of General Motors Cadillac division.

Christmas decor theme was carried out in the living room, dining room buffet table and the ill-patronized sun room where the punch was served.

Mrs. Oren Blenkle of Vernon drive was hostess last week to eight members of her bridge club for their annual Christmas luncheon and gift exchange.

Recent newcomers to the South Berkshires are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane of 13 Mile road, formerly of Borger, Texas.

Mr. Lane, an estimator for the Galvin Lane Company, Detroit, enjoys woodworking and gardening. Mrs. Lane collects china cups and saucers and likes to do fancy work.

The Charles Youngs' downstairs recreation room on Leemore drive was gayly decorated with red and green streamers, silver bells and yuletide trimmings when they entertained the first annual Christmas party Saturday evening for wives and staff members of Lincoln Division's manufacturing standards department.

Prior to the party, names were drawn for the comical gift exchange and each person was required to write a poem approp the gift. The 36 guests participated in lively games, danced to juke box music and helped themselves to plain and fancy confections at the punch table.

A huge cake decorated with Rudolf the red-nosed reindeer, poinsettias, and holly berries centered the buffet table for the midnight supper.

Anthony Foley of Vernon drive was among the Detroit Lions fans aboard the fifth annual junket special train to Chicago for the Lions-Bears game at Wrigley stadium.
