

Santa to Come in Red Convertible For Annual Tree-Lighting Ceremony

Santa Claus will drive around in a bright red convertible, ringing a loud bell, Sunday to alert area children and their parents to the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony at 8 p.m.

Everyone is invited to this annual affair sponsored by the Walnut Lake Women's Club. It will be at the fire hall, where club members decorate a tree especially planted three years ago for this ceremony.

Girl Scouts will lead the caroling, and there will be a community singing, after which Santa will present each child with a small gift.

Chapter BF of the PEO sisterhood celebrated its 12th anniversary with a Christmas party at the Thomas Taylor home on West Dartmouth road last evening.

Members were greeted with a tempting assortment of hors d'oeuvres, and helped themselves to turkey dinner from a red and gold buffet table.

Guests were Mrs. Elmer Stindt, Mrs. Howard Todd, Miss Gretchen Saam, Mrs. James Sineclair, Mrs. Bruce Roach, Mrs. Norman Barnes, Miss Lucille Remler, Mrs. John Underwood, Miss Barbara Matthews, Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. J. M. Ludwig, Mrs. R. W. Jean, Jr. and Mrs. K. E. Smith.

All residents of Lone Pine Heights subdivision were invited to the Byron E. Wyatt home recently for a party which featured a barbecue, followed by group games. Co-hosts were the Goodwins.

On the invitation list were three couples now in the process of building their new homes. Co-hosts were the Goodwins.

On the invitation list were the Hilliers, who are building on Cimarron court, and the Trinks, who will move onto Mohawk court.

During the festivities, mention was made of a subdivision new to the area. Eye party plans for which are still being formulated.

Mrs. Richard Holmes entertained at her West Dartmouth road home in honor of her husband's birthday.

Invited to join in the fun were James Reynolds, the Harry Whites, the Tyler Perkins, the August Mulkshanks and the Walter McCarty's.

E. H. Websters Entertain 30 Guests at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Webster, of Chamberlain drive, entertained 30 guests at an open house Saturday afternoon. They will leave tomorrow for Florida, Ala., to spend Christmas day with Mrs. Webster's parents.

Their son Jess will remain with his grandparents while his sister Marian and parents proceed farther south into Florida. Their final destination in Florida will be the Keys where they plan to do some deep sea fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Richter and son A. J. will leave Saturday for Grand Rapids, their former home, where they will be with their daughter, Mrs. Lewis H. Withey and her family and son W. J. Richter and his family on Christmas day.

The Verne Smiths of Chisholm trail will entertain 32 relatives and friends at an open house Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Chamberlain of Chamberlain drive, have invited members of the Orchard Valley-Hilltop bowling association to their home for cocktails before they bowl this evening.

Dennis Mrowczynski will celebrate his tenth birthday Saturday afternoon with ten boy friends at his home on Meadow Lake road. Christmas Day, relatives of the Mrowczynski will exchange gifts and have dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kaczorowski, of Vachon court will be visited by Mrs. Kaczorowski's sister and two children during the holidays. They will arrive by plane Sunday from Miami Springs, Fla.

The Christmas party of the Franklin mixer bowling league was a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baker, Jr.

Scout Troop 325 Holds Progressive Holiday Dinner

WALNUT LAKE—Girl scouts, troop 325, held a progressive dinner party last week. Scouts who attended were Christine Layman, Linda Myers, Linda Jacobson, Lynne Weaver, Susan Robinson, Gail Borgquist, Nan Jones, Carolyn Sanborn, Janet Schmidt.

Susan Feeley, Pamela Middleton, Cindy McKee, Sandy Keller, Diane Mott, Julie Frank, Gale Habrie, Denny Robinson, Barbara Solles, Laura Bohard, Betsy Louison and Susan Callens.

Drivers for the girls were Mrs. Floyd Layman, Mrs. James Sanborn, Mrs. Ernest Jacobson and Mrs. Robert Myers.

AS THEY GATHERED, each scout was presented by Mrs. Jacobson a hand-made Christmas corsage. At the Myers home on Middlebelt road, dinner was under way when the girls were served a colorful fruit cocktail.

Hot rolls and a festive gelatin salad were served by Mrs. Gilbert Borgquist in her Meadow Lake road home.

The scouts found their places marked by miniature waffles in Christmas trees, the handiwork of Mrs. Sanborn, at the Quanton road home of Mrs. Harold Jones. Here the main course of fried chicken made the table extremely tempting.

Gaily decorated cookies with fancy ice cream were served at the Charles Robinson's Bloomfield Lane home. Christmas carols and exchange of gifts followed at the scouts' extra special party.

BRIDGE TOOK SECOND PLACE to holiday chatter and opening of the gifts which the guests had been asked to bring for a Christmas exchange. The honor guest was presented a farewell gift from those present to remind her of her former neighbors when she is settled in her new home.

Among the unusual decorations created by Mrs. Harry Moon for the Valley Woods Woman's association Christmas Tea was the espalier tree, trimmed with interesting, unusual, handmade ornaments.

Mrs. Robert Anderson (left) and Mrs. Edward Elisquilli, tea hostesses, take a closer look at the ornaments.

Area Homes Are Gay With Yuletide Decorations as Owners Entertain

July in December, Christmas in July or what have you, seen stringing a garland and a light string around her lamp post this week was a gay little Wing Lake housewife clad in shorts and beach sandals.

At any rate, it's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, everywhere you go—around Wing Lake shores. People are busy entertaining, being entertained and decorating.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sussan of Thurber road, were hosts to a Sussan's office personnel Saturday evening. This annual Christmas dinner featured rock cornish hens stuffed with wild rice.

Following hors d'oeuvres and cocktails, guests were served from a buffet table centered with a holly and candle arrangement.

During the evening the 14 guests enjoyed two clever games, a slogan contest and picture charades.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones of Thurber, during the past week has been his sister, Mrs. M. C. Jones of St. Clair. Following her stay with the Joneses, she was guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Fisk, of Sheringham.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston and son Chuck, 8, are happily settled in their new home on Sedon Lake drive. They moved in October from Shadow Lane at Gilbert Lake.

Mr. Livingston owns a wholesale meat supply. His hobby is golf. He's a member of the board of directors of Pine Lake country club.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Dunn and four-year-old daughter Julie are newcomers on Worlington road, having bought the home formerly owned by the Verne Casson family.

They moved here from Detroit bringing Mr. Dunn, who is in real estate with Hall and Young, much nearer to his business.

Both are University of Michigan graduates. She is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta and is with Alpha Sigma Phi. Her hobbies are sewing and decorating.
