MRS. LOUIS P. TRUESDELL

Phyllis Abbott Wed In Episcopal Rites

St. James Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding Saturday of Phyllis Abbott and Pvt. Louis Phil Truesdell. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James F. Abbott of Lakeview avenue, Birmingham, and the Louis J. Truesdells of Plymouth.

Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the 7:30 p.m. nuptials, in the presence of 300 guests.

Phyllis was gowned in a white chantilly lace and nylon tulle creation which was also worn by her sister, Mrs. John E. Jacobs, for her marriage. The lace bodice was styled with portrait neckline and long sleeves and the bouffant tulle over satin skirt featured a lace front panel.

A crown of satin and pearls secured the bride's fingertip length veil and her cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy was centered by an orchid.

Shirley Abbott was honor maid for her twin sister and two other sisters of the bride, Barbara Abbott of Birmingham and Mrs. John E. Jacobs of Cayahoga Falls, Ohio, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Robert Evans of Plymouth, were bridesmaids.

Their steel blue peau de soie gowns were ballerina length and designed with boat necklines, empire waists and full skirts. Complementing their ensembles were handbands of blue feathers and cascade arrangements of pink carnations, roses and ivy.

DR. ROBERT EVANS served as best man and guests were seated by Keith Alford and Walter Drusus of Plymouth, Donald Beaudry

Home from College

Barbara Watkins Is Bride Of Robertson A. Struthers

After honeymooning in Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson Andrew Struthers will make their home at Sausalito, Calif., while he continues his studies at the University of California law school.

Their marriage was solemnized Saturday afternoon by Dr. W. Glen Harris in First Presbyterian church.

THE BRIDE, the former Barbara Watkins, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent B. Watkins of Henley drive and the groom's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. Struthers of Minneapolis.

Barbara carried a bouquet of stephanotis and gardenias with her beige silk peau de soie suit dress. Her hat and shoes were in a matching hue.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Ronald M. Schopp of Kingston, N. Y., wore a red silk dress with boat neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirt. Her bandeau was of holly and mistletoe and holly were combined for her bouquet.

Mrs. Watkins pinned a corsage of cymbidium orchids to the neckline of her navy silk-linen suit and her hat was of white satin.

JAMES A. STRUTHERS and Dana R. Struthers of Minneapolis served as their brother's best man and usher, respectively. Also ushering were Walter Bones of Parker, S. D., and Brooks Naffziger of Minneapolis.

Guests were greeted at reception in the Watkins' home following the wedding.

New Year Wishes

There is something wonderful about a holiday which can put aside the gloom and restlessness in a troubled world while peace on earth, good will toward men becomes the byword.

As this spirit fills the air, we at Birmingham Paint take time to reflect upon the year past coming to a close. It has been a good year, full of enjoyable relations with you and folks like you.

We want you to know how deeply we appreciate your friendship and we extend to you our heartfelt wishes for a very Bountiful New Year.
