Santa Claus Arrives Early At Charing Cross Estates

Santa Claus arrived Sunday evening in Charing Cross Estates subdivision just as the children were gathering around a gaily decorated Christmas tree set up on a vacant lot on Burley drive.

After Christmas carols, sung by the children, Santa opened his bag and brought out a candy treat for all the good little boys and girls.

A Christmas party for the Pine Hill Bowling League was held at the home of the Maurice Meads of Pine Hill drive on the evening of Dec. 14. Turkey, cream dips and snacks were served to the mixed group of 28.

Hill drive attended a Christmas dinner dance at the Detroit Athletic club Wednesday evening. Among the guests in their party of 18 were the Charles Gehringers and the Ray Forsythes of Birmingham.

A Christmas luncheon was hosted by Mrs. William Rice of Pine Hill drive Dec. 18.

Her guests were Mrs. Frederick Oliver and her mother, Mrs. Lee Giffin, Mrs. Louis Deak, Mrs. Thomas Paton, all of Hickory Heights.

From Hylane drive came Mrs. Owen Miller, Mrs. Russell Link and Mrs. J. D. Atkinson.

Those present from Pine Hill were Mrs. John Wolff, Mrs. Maurice Mead, Mrs. Martin Leimbach, Mrs. William Meese, Mrs. Robert Stacey, Mrs. Norman Llesey, Mrs. Michael Kovach, Mrs. Roberts Brandon.

Home again after spending a week in New York are the John Vivians of Burnley drive. While there they attended the auto show and saw the Dave Garaways and the Herb Shriners.

Rockefeller Centre was a must on their list, along with Macys and a tour of a few of the night spots. "Most Happy Fellow" was also on the agenda before returning home.

Dec. 22 couldn't come fast enough for the Raymond Longs of Haddington drive as that was the day their son, Richard, flew in from Houston, Texas to spend the holidays. Richard, a second lieutenant, is stationed at Ellington Air Force base near Houston.

Recent houseguests of the Longs were Mrs. Charlotte Concelman and her daughter, Dolly, of Lomita, Calif., relatives of Mrs. Long.

The John Wolff home on Juniper court will be a bee hive of activity during the holidays as their daughter and son and their families will be with them. This is the first Christmas in four years the family could all be together.

Parker Wolff and his wife will be coming from Michigan State, while the Jerome Wobrocks and their daughters, Wendy and Polly, will be arriving from Park Forest, Ill. to spend Christmas and New Years.

Spending Christmas week with the Robert Staceys and their little son, Mark, is Mr. Stacey's mother, Mrs. V. Stacey of Boston, Mass. Mark will be grandmother's biggest attraction!

Steve Nagy, 2786 Bolingbroke, won a vacuum cleaner in a bowling tournament. Although the tournament started in early fall, the playoff has just been completed and Mr. Nagy was one of the winners.
