

Newly Wed Daniel Webbs Make Home in California

Nancy Katherine McCombe and Daniel Davis Webb exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony Monday morning in St. James Episcopal church in a registry solemnized by Rev. Harold Towne in the presence of the immediate families.

Following the rites, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Webb, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Webb of Groose Pointe and the bride's grandparents, the Charles R. Walls of London, Ont. Also present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Newman T. Halstrom of Gates Mills, Ohio.

FOR HER WEDDING day, Nancy chose an Italian silk gown with chapel train, and lace appliques trimming the bodice and skirt. A lace cap secured her veil.

Susan McCombe was the sister's maid of honor. Her gown was of red silk and chiffon and was complemented by a headband of

Hillsdale Freshman Pledges Fraternity

Thomas W. Hizar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber C. Hizar of 624 Park and Walter S. Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Laidlaw of 70 Tottenham, both of Birmingham and both freshmen on the Hillsdale college campus, have pledged to the Delta Tau Delta social fraternity on the Hillsdale campus.

Tom is a graduate of Highlander high while Walter is a graduate of Birmingham high school.

MRS. JOHN R. LAIDLAW

Ivory Silk Taffeta Gown Worn By Janet E. McLeese

Gowned in ivory silk taffeta, Janet Ellen McLeese came down the aisle of First Presbyterian church Saturday to pledge nuptial vows with John Russell Laidlaw, son of the Hugh J. Laidlaws of Highland Park.

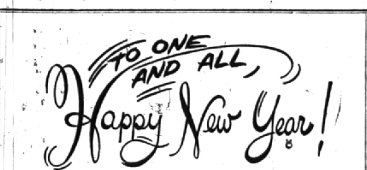

Dr. W. Glen Harris performed the ceremony, after which the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese, hosted a reception at Devon Gables. The McLeeses are former Birmingham residents, having moved to Stratford, N. Y., this year.

FOUR attendants in dusty green velvet sheaths preceded the bride down the aisle. Matron of honor was Mrs. James B. Apple and bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald M. McLeese and Lois and Carolyn McLeese, sister-in-law and sisters of the bride, respectively. White calli-corn roses and holly were combined for their bouquets.

The bride's bouquet was fashioned of white roses and holly. A lace veil was applied at the neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and hipline of her floor

MRS. DANIEL D. WEBB

As the clock rings out the hour of midnight and a brand New Year bows in, we raise our voices above all to wish you and yours 365 happy days, filled with good health, good cheer and good fortune. Thank you for welcoming us to Birmingham so warmly.

Vassar Club Plans Prospective Students' Party

Delphia Lamerson, Sus Ketchum, Judy Dodrill and Jane Wert will be among the young ladies attending the Vassar club's prospective students' party tomorrow.

John Holmes, secretary of Vassar college and Sarah Goddard, president of the school's student government, will be at the party in Groose Pointe university school at 10:30 a.m. to talk about Vassar to girls in the area.

Tomorrow evening, a dinner is planned by the Vassar clubs at the Country club of Detroit, at which architect Eero Saarinen will show his model of a new dormitory he has designed for the college.

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Bujold of Amherst announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Keith M. Sippelky of Detroit.

The bride-elect attended Highland Park Junior high school and is a member of the Sigma Gamma sorority.

Mr. Sippelky, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sippelky of Jasper, Mich., attends Wayne State University.

The wedding is to take place Jan. 26 in a candlelight service at Holy Redeemer church, Birmingham, followed by a reception at the Community House.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
