

MRS. RICHARD D. YOUNG, JR.

Laurentian Mountains, Honeymoon Destination

A hustled gown of peau de soie brocade, embellished at the scooped out neck with pearl applique chantilly lace was worn by Carolyn Ann Luttrell for her marriage to Richard DuBois Young, Jr., Friday. The 8 o'clock double ring rites were read by the Rev. William C. Norvall at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Elbow length sleeves and a chapel train fashioned the gown. A crown of chantilly lace embroidered with pearls held in place her illusion veil. She carried album lilies and lilies of the valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Melville Harold Luttrell of Cold Spring drive, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mr. Luttrell. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William C. Ormiston. Richard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard DuBois Young, Sr., of La Jolla, Calif.

MRS. LUTTRELL had white cymbidium orchids pinned to her lino blue sheath of ajaccon lace. Richard's mother chose a taupe peau de sole with a flared skirt. She had green cymbidium orchids.

After a wedding trip to the Laurentian mountains, the new Mr. and Mrs. Young will make their home in East Lansing.

Out-of-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Young, Sr., from La Jolla, Calif., will be staying at the Bloomfield Hills Country club and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Ormiston of Pittsburgh, Pa., brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and son, Tommy, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melville H. Luttrell for the holidays.
