Many Families Away, Visiting Relatives at Christmas Time

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hesselberg and daughter, Penny, of Auburn, have returned from a ten-day visit to Bacon's-bay-the-Sea at Ft. Walton, Fla., where Mr. Hesselberg enjoyed deep-sea fishing and they all visited points of interest.

Christmas night they entertained friends with a buffet supper. The Daniel Rempal's of Marquette held open house Christmas for neighbors and friends. The George Monroe's of Birchwood spent Christmas holiday in Lansing dividing their time between the homes of their mothers, Mrs. Olive Struble and Mrs. Gertrude Hodges. Mr. and Mrs. William Dymann and son, Billy, of Arlington, spent Christmas in White Plains, N. Y., with the respective parents of the Dymans.

Newcomers to East Beverly are the Harold S. Berry's of Madeline. They have one daughter, Mrs. Elery York of Livonia. Mr. Berry is in the banking department of Chrysler Corp. Mrs. Berry divides her time between here and their home at Clearwater, Fla., where they enjoy the fishing and gardening.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Musto of Beverly gave a cocktail party and buffet supper today for 50 Birmingham and Detroit friends.

Mrs. A. S. Booth of Beverly entertained a number of her guests this afternoon for a Christmas get-together. Mrs. E. B. Hall of Arlington held her annual glee party for 30 couples from 7 to 9, Sunday evening. She was assisted by her three teenagers, Robert 17, Steven, 15 and Sandra, 13. Forty guests attended the open house of the Edward C. Crona's of Sheridan Drive, Friday evening.

Collegeians home from school for the holidays, included Nancy DuCharme and Kitty Schoonmaker.
