Jolly Santa Claus Greeted Guests at Christmas Party

A Jolly Santa Claus greeted guests when they arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dewar of Middlebury Lane Friday night.

Santa acted as doorman and after wishing guests a Merry Christmas escorted them to the door.

The Dewar home was beautifully decorated for the affair with a huge holly wreath on the fireplace wall and a colorfully lighted Christmas tree caught guests' eyes as they looked through the living room picture window on to the Dewars' back terrace.

The most talked about hors d'oeuvres served at the Christmas party were small cocktail hot dogs, grilled on the kitchen open barbecue pit, and served in tiny hot dog buns. There were approximately 50 guests.

A holly wreath surrounded the punch bowl at the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hedley in their home on Wedgewood road Saturday.

Extending season's greetings to the open house guests, was Santa

Clause with twinkling eyes, placed on the mantelpiece. Red carmenas escorted them to the door.

The center-piece for the buffet table, consisting of approximately 50 neighborhood friends, during the afternoon were Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. John Hobart, Mrs. Leo Jacobs and Mrs. Arthur Newman. Attending the open house were 50 neighborhood friends, out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keidel and Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Haster.

Home for the holidays from Michigan State University is Nancy Wickham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wickham of Old Mill road. Nancy arrived home and was completely surprised to find her home sitting to surprise her with a party for her 21st birthday.

After games, drinks and dancing, a buffet dinner was served to guests by Mrs. Wickham. Later in the evening Nancy opened her very humorous birthday gifts.

Valley Woods Homes Gleam With Lights and Hospitality

Entering Valley Woods in the evening is like approaching fairyland, for every home is aglow with lights and Christmas hospitality.

The Newark grandchildren were looking forward to an old fashioned holiday at the new home of grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neward of Orchard lane. Frank was disappointed in the weather, the day was all it should have been for the families of their son and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neward, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harwick.

Welcomed home from her studies is Kay Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calhoun of Belvine trail, from Alma college. Also arriving will be Mr. and Mrs. John Brown's daughter Barbara from Western Michigan.

The Robert Polos of Eastlady road had days planned for their daughter Dary's holiday from Purdu university.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bond attended the annual Christmas dinner party Saturday evening with his business associates at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Sixe of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Savles of Westlady road entertained neighbors and friends at a buffet supper Saturday evening. The buffet table was gaily set with holiday decorations.

George McCains Return From Trip to California

Mr. and Mrs. George McCain returned last week from a motor trip to California and Arizona where they visited a son and daughter whom they hadn't seen in over three years.

In the seven weeks they were away, the McCains motored over 8,000 miles. A three-day stay in Chicago was the first stop. They motored on to Spokane, Wash. for a visit with Mrs. McCain's brother and his wife. Thanksgiving was celebrated in Belmont, Calif. with their son, his wife and three children.

After ten days of fun with the grandchildren, they traveled on to Los Angeles to visit friends. Phoenix, Arizona was the next stop. They spent a week there with their daughter, her husband and three children. Nice to be home, but nicer still to have all those memories of a perfect trip.

Recently Mrs. Madeline Doeren entertained a small group of friends at her home at Meadow Way following the annual Christmas dinner party of the Soroptimists.

Mrs. Doeren's son, cadet Ralph Doeren, is home for the holidays from Kemper Military School in Boonville, Ky.

Open house on Christmas Eve took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Finegan. Neighbors gathered to meet two newcomers to Crabtree road. They are Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Farris and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Szarynski.

Dinner guests at the Finegans on Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Loud and their children, Martyn and Gordon of Birmingham.

Last Friday Lee Foltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foltz, celebrated his sixth birthday with a luncheon at Forest Lake Country club. The twelve young guests enjoyed games and a Santa Claus birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Buschagen and children, John and Judy, have returned from a Christmas visit to Youngstown, Ohio, where they motored for the holiday.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Twitmyer entertained a group of friends at bridge. The Twitmyers motored to La Porte, Ind. for Christmas with Twitmyer's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. William Kalsow.

Visiting over the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Campbell are Wishing Nancy a happy birthday were John Hayden, Jim Dohle, Marilyn Wagenschetz, Ted Dohle, Lynn Durvea, Joan Detmers, Andy Anderson and Marilyn Maynard.

The carolers you heard Sunday going through Berkshires were cub scouts of den 7, escorted by den mother, Mrs. Paul Drooge of Jackson Park Lane. The boys got a big thrill doing it and it was equally enjoyed by the residents.

The cubs had a lot of fun getting ready for Christmas. They prepared individual packages of candy wrapped in red and green crepe paper which they took to the Oakland County juvenile Court to distribute to less fortunate children. Cubs spreading Christmas cheer were David Boatwick, Drooge, Wayne Warner, Billy Young and Berry Smith.

It's party, party, party, over Westchester way. A white spiral glittering Christmas tree on a brilliant floor decorated the room of guests of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Bryant Sunday afternoon. The white tree had also been on their Christmas card so friends had no trouble finding the Bryant home.

Ice mold wreaths with red and green cherries in them floated in the punch bowls. The centerpiece of the buffet table was a most unusual arrangement of glittering pine cones and driftwood. There were approximately 100 friends from the Bendix Research Laboratories who attended the Bryant open house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duell of Eastlady road will entertain the family at a birthday buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Roney Mark, Mrs. Duell's mother on Christmas Eve. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Duane Mark arriving home from Long Island, N.Y.
