

Glen Cladwells Entertain 100 Guests at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Caldwell entertained in their Tuckahoe road home some hundred guests at an open house Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Caldwell carried out the autumn hues of gold on her buffet which was lighted by tall golden tapers.

The Caldwell and daughter Jean are anxiously awaiting the Christmas visit of son Dick who will return from Western Michigan college to spend the holidays with his family.

Another open house was held recently at the A. V. Witbeck home on North Cranbrook road home when they entertained at a pre-Christmas party for some 70 of their friends.

Young Gary Witbeck celebrated his 12th birthday by a dinner party given for a group of his friends. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Witbeck, the group had dinner at Northwood. Among the guests were Jim Boyle, Randy Mathews, Tim Gray, Jim Foster, David White, and Gregory and Susanne Witbeck.

Mrs. Philip Copeland of Ardmore was hostess to a group of neighbors at a coffee held recently one morning in her home. Not only was it a pleasant get-together but an occasion to introduce new neighbors who have moved to the village within recent weeks.

few weeks. Mr. Hitchcock is a sales representative for the Haywood Wakefield Co.

The Hitchcocks' two children are Janet, 16, a junior at Birmingham high and young Harold, known as "Woody," is 13 and attends Derby junior high. The Hitchcocks' former home was Huntington Woods.

Dr. and Mrs. James Barron of Amherst road entertained at a pre-holiday party Sunday evening. The Barrons are also recent newcomers to the village and have two children attending the Village school. Ann is 9 and young Jimmy, 6. Dr. Barron is on the staff at Henry Ford hospital, Detroit. Both Dr. and Mrs. Barron are natives of Indiana, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Gardner of Cranbrook road traveled to Culver, Ind. to spend Thanksgiving with their 14-year-old son Bill who will be returning home soon for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Naomi Usher and Mrs. Marjorie Elwood spent Thanksgiving with the T. J. Usher family of Clifton road.
