MRS. ALBERT F. PRZYBYLSKI, JR.

White Poinsettias Accent Maids' Red Velvet Gowns

Lavinia Marie Ross and Albert Fred Przybylski, Jr., exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday morning in Holy Name church in a ceremony witnessed by 300 guests.

Following the rites, the newlyweds and their parents greeted guests at a reception in Forest Lake country club. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allen Ross of Argyle boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Przybylski of Detroit are parents of the groom.

LAVINIA'S bridal gown of white velvet featured lace inserts, hand-beaded in pearls and crystals, at the waist and bateau neckline of the long sleeved bodice. A matching jewel encrusted lace headpiece secured her veil and her cascade bouquet was of white gardenias.

Six attendants in crimson velvet preceded the bride down the aisle. Marie Fedullo of Detroit was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Anna Price of Birmingham, Marion Hastings of Detroit and Lucille Faldt of Pontiac. Betsy Ross, sister of the bride, and Dorrane Crowell served as junior bridesmaids.

Their gowns were designed with satin accents at the empire waistline and framing the floating back panels. Crimson satin and velvet leaves formed their headpieces and white poinsettias and holly leaves were used in their bouquets.

ALFRED Przybylski served as his brother's best man and guests were seated by William Prough, Richard Koster and Charles Schleicher of Detroit. Anthony Scally of St. Clair Shores and Wallace Ross, brother of the bride, of Birmingham.

An orchid corsage and coral colored accessories complimented Mrs. Ross' taupe lace gown. The mother of the groom pinned a white orchid to the neckline of her Dior blue lace dress.

When they return from a Florida honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Przybylski will make their home in Royal Oak.
