Bloomfield Hills Billboard

By Barbara VAN DYK

Wednesday the high school and eighth grade bands boarded two buses enroute to the Northville high school for an afternoon of playing, fun and instruction. Occasion was the annual meeting of the bands of the Wayne-Oakland county league. Eight schools participated, sending 400 bandmen. The afternoon began with a clinic for each type of instrument directed by an expert player from the University of Michigan. These experts demonstrated correct playing on their own instruments, listened to the students play, and gave suggestions for improvement. Refreshments were served, and then the entire group of 400 met to play. Band leaders from each of the eight high schools directed the massed band. Mr. Bruce Warnock, band instructor at Bloomfield, opened the program directing the "Ballet Parisienne" by Offenbach.

A very different type of assembly was held Friday morning in the gym. It was a visit from Mark Taylor, American troubadour. He sang folk songs and told interesting stories for an hour of entertainment. Mr. Taylor works from Ann Arbor.

The GAA ring tennis tournament has recently been completed. Winners of the doubles series were two sophomores, Marilyn Anderson and Joyce Adams.

The Snowflake Junior high dance, was held Friday night in the high school gym. It was sponsored by the student council, headed by Bruce Charters, as are all seventh and eighth grade dances. The Monarchs of Melody provided music for the evening. Mr. Glen Wooster is the student council advisor.

Miss Jean Sierlet's seventh grade volleyball team beat Miss Joan Vanorsdall's girls Thursday night in the gym. But to turn the tables, Miss Van's eighth graders,
