Local Students Work on J-Hop

Putting their heads together, ten central committee members bring the University of Michigan's Junior Hop from its earliest stages, an all-campus election of committee members in the spring, to the real thing, 1200 couples in tux and formal dancing to the music of two name bands.

Responsible for contracting the two bands for the Feb. 8 event is Ann McDonald, daughter of the Arthur L. McDonalds of 1184 Dorchester. A psychology in education student, she is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and a recipient of Wyvern, junior women's honorary group, awarded for scholarship, leadership and service. She has served as decorations chairman for Fresh Weekend, costume chairman for Sophomore Show and homecoming and athletic chairman for her sorority.

ALSO ON the central committee is Arthur Epker, whose parents, the A. G. Epkers, recently moved to 2330 Fairway, Birmingham, from Toledo, O. He is serving as financial chairman for the dance. A student in U of M's college of literature, science and arts, he is a member of Kappa Kappa Psi national honorary music fraternity and Theta Xi social fraternity, where he is house officer. Arthur has also been a member of the Michigan marching band.
