Settle Your Future Day Set Sunday At Marygrove

Joanne Seitz of Norheaster avenue, Southfield township, will serve on a panel of six Marygrove college seniors to discuss "Jobs in Prospective," Sunday on the college campus.

This will be a feature of the sixth annual "Settle Your Future Day" for high school seniors. The panelists will tell how they came to Marygrove, why they stayed and how they steered.

Several selections by the Glee club will be offered before and after lunch and the afternoon session will be a discussion of "Jobs in Prospective" by graduates who are working in various jobs and in every major field. There'll be conferences with alumnae and faculty advisors and tours of the building will conclude the program.

High school students may make arrangements to attend by phoning the registrar.
