Bermuda Honeymooners To Live in Delaware

Saturday afternoon in Wilmington, Del., Margaret Velma Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford John Hill, became the bride of James Renness Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Seward Hodges of Bloomfield Hills.

The ceremony was performed in the Westminster Presbyterian church by the Rev. John Watson Christie, assisted by the associate pastor, Dr. Donald C. Wilson. A reception followed in Grace Hall of the church.

Mr. Hill gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white silk taffeta gown fashioned along princess lines. The Empire bodice had a yoke and short sleeves of Alencon lace and was fastened with pearls. The full skirt terminated in a chapel train. Her ring finger was fashioned from a portion of her mother's veil of silk illusion and it was held by a half-hat of folds of the taffeta studded with pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of lilacs-of-the-valley, platanopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte, 1574 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, entertained one of the area bridge groups in her home on Thanksgiving. Guests included Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. Frank Bedient, Mrs. George Bennett, Mrs. Harry Van Allen, Mrs. Harold Day and Mrs. Russ Wentworth. After much refreshment and chat, dessert and coffee were served by the hostess.

The true meaning of Christmas was manifested in the generosity of the Troyton Manor residents by answering the sincere cry for help the Hungarian people are currently asking of the American nation. Volunteer workers for the fund spent the past week soliciting contributions towards the relief of these people.

SUSAN Elizabeth Hodges, sister of the groom, was maid of honor for Miss Hill. Bridesmaids were Barbara Jane Hunter of New Bedford, Mass., Muriel Joyce Chesley and Patricia Ann Poole of Wilmington. The flower girl was little Julie Fitch Wilson.

Robert Williams Patterson of Birmingham was best man, or his cousin. The ushers were Roger Humphrey Fitch of Grosse Pointe, cousin of the groom, Thomas Fran-
