

MR. AND MRS. Walter P. Hill and children, Pat and Nancy, admire a dress, fashioned of gold metallic cloth, brought back from Hawaii for Mrs. Hill by her husband and son. Mr. Hill and Pat returned recently from a five-week round the world trip. Nancy was not forgotten during the souvenir shopping . . . she's wearing a Japanese costume, complete with walking shoes and fan.

with H. White, Mrs. Clarence McBryde, and Mrs. David C. Lowe. Others assisting with the arrangements are: Mrs. Frederick H. Lindebeck, Mrs. Cash W. Talbot, Mrs. Edward D. Ruth, Mrs. A. G. Coulton, Mr. Edward S. Mouton, Mrs. J. Cliff Roberts and Mr. George F. Tolbert.

Special lectures are scheduled during the week. Mrs. Albert F. Allmyer, noted teacher of Flower Arrangement, will demonstrate with plant material and colored slides the basic principals in design. Her talk, "Christmas Heritage," will be given at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 4. On Thursday, Dec. 6, at 2 p.m. Professor H. O. Whittemore from the Department of Landscape Architecture at the University of Michigan will speak on suggested plantings for birds, for winter coloring.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Have You Met . . . The new residents on Windmere? Mr. and Mrs. Richard James moved here recently from Cleveland, Ohio. James, a graduate of University of Michigan, is controller for Harley Earl, Inc. Mrs. James' alma mater is Chevy Chase. They enjoy horse-back riding, bridge and hi-fi, and collect player piano rolls.

Christmas Tree Exhibition 6 Days at Historical Museum

The Christmas Season will begin officially for the Metropolitan Detroit area when the Michigan Horticultural Society presents the Christmas Greens exhibition, "Winter-Green" at the Detroit Historical Museum, Woodward at Kirby. The 6-day show is open to the public without charge from Dec. 4 through Dec. 9 during museum hours daily from 1 to 10 p.m. except on Saturday when the hours are from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Mrs. Lloyd Hughes is general chairman of the new and unusual Christmas decorations, a w.g.a. table and mantel arrangements, novelties and Christmas trees for "fall through the house." Many of the arrangements made by the exhibitors may be duplicated in the Detroit Garden Center Work-shops which are under the direction of Mrs. Frank Webb of Arlington drive on the second floor during the morning and afternoon of Dec. 5, and the evening of Dec. 6.

Mrs. LEWIS C. Dibble of West Lincoln is staging chairman of the show which, in addition to the class entries and horticultural specimens, will feature some outstanding invitational exhibits. These include Mrs. Berrien C.

Olis U. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Leisen.

OTHERS on the Exhibition Committee are Mrs. Wilson W. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Jamie Johnson, Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, Mrs. Ken-
