Residents Home Again After Holiday Vacations

Most of the area residents enjoying Thanksgiving holiday trips are home again. The Charles Eberhard's of Hylane drive motored down to Rushsylvania, Ohio to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhard, Mr. Eberhard's parents.

From there they traveled on to Xenia, Ohio, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Welch, Mrs. Eberhard's sister. Columbus was their last stop-off before returning home. The Henry Meadowcroft's of Park Hill drive have just returned from a 10 days vacation in Johnstown, Pa., where they visited friends.

A house guest at the home of the L. J. Harwoods of Meadowlane road, during Thanksgiving week was Mrs. Laurance Harwood of South Bend, Ind., Mr. Harwood's mother.

House guests at the home of the Edward Beck's of Meadowlane during Thanksgiving week were Mr. Beck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beck of Troy, N. C. The Andrew Beck's thoroughly enjoyed the snow and cold weather as it is rare in their part of the country.

The Wayne Householders, formerly of Birmingham, are newcomers on Fox Run road. They have four children, David, 14, a student at Derby junior high, Wayne, 11, a Pembroke pupil, Bruce, 4, and Lorri Ann, 1.

Mr. Householder is a manufacturer's representative. They are members of the Forest Lake Country club and enjoy golfing. The family motored to Wellsville, Ohio for a Thanksgiving reunion with relatives of Mr. Householder. They stayed on for a few days before returning home.

Mrs. Robert Wason of Lanegan drive hosted a get-acquainted coffee the evening of Nov. 29, for some of the newcomers in the Leonard lane area.

Those attending were Mrs. Bernard Jacobson, Mrs. Fritz Fralick, Mrs. William Richard, Mr. Red Campbell, Mrs. Paul Taylor, Mrs. Edward Ebert, Mrs. John Huber, Mrs. Richard Johnston.

Mrs. Wason's mother, Mrs. Arthur Gifford of Boonton, N. J., has just returned home after spending the past three weeks with the family. It was three wonderful weeks of getting acquainted again with grandchildren, Beth, Alex and Ronnie.

Cindy Cole, two-year-old daughter of the Ernie Coles of Butter-nut Hill, celebrated her birthday Saturday, Nov. 24, with a birthday dinner. The group of two-year-olds attending were accompanied by their mothers.

There were Tish Jennings, Bill Potter, Barbie Jackson, Stephen Hagerman, Betsy Barnes and Kim Searis. Mr. Cole was kept busy taking movies while the party was in progress.

A toboggan party was a "howl-
