Mrs. Clifford Baugh to Hold Benefit Musical Tea, Dec. 13

Christmas bells is the theme chosen for the musical tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Baugh, Dec. 13, under the sponsorship of the Women's progressive club, for the benefit of the northern branch of the Detroit Y.

Mrs. Fred Worden and Mrs. Robert Rowe are in charge of the tea table. Tickets may be secured by calling them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gieger started the holiday season with an open house Sunday night for 40 friends and neighbors. Not wanting to rush the Christmas season too much, Mrs. Gieger chose copper and green decorations throughout the house.

Sass shells, sprayed with copper paint and surrounded by evergreens and pale green Christmas tree balls, composed the centerpiece on the dining room table.
