Newly Wed Gulleys Honeymoon in Nassau

Rev. Harold T. Towne solemnized the Friday evening marriage of Dona Hagerman and Orrin S. Gullely, Jr., in St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman of Eastways road, Bloomfield Hills, and the Orrin S. Gulleys of Riverside drive, Birmingham.

FOR HER wedding day, Dona selected an ivory peau de soie gown topped by an empire bodice of chantilly lace. It was designed with three-quarter length sleeves, scalloped portrait neckline, and full skirt terminating in a cathedral train.

Her silk illusion veil cascaded from a half hat of chantilly lace and completing her ensemble was a bouquet of white spray orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Jill Morgan wore a peach silk organza frock to be junior bridesmaid for her cousin. Her rust velvet hat and floral arrangement of Talsman roses were identical to those of the other attendants.

by Jeremy John, John Hayward, John Wirth and Charles Dover spoke. John Morgan was junior usher.

Mrs. Hagerman's beige lace sheath was complemented by a matching lace hat and corsage of brown orchids. The mother of the groom pinned pink orchids to her blue mist peau de soie gown.

AFTER GREETING guests at a reception in Bloomfield Open Hunt club, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Miami and Nassau. The bride's traveling costume was a brown and white silk tweed suit with brown accessories and white feather hat.

Upon their return, they will make their home in the gate lodge of the Frank C. Rick estate on 13 Mile road.
