

Rickey, Tommy Stanford Visit Davey Crockett's Birthplace

The quite passe Davey Crockett became a hero again recently for two young Foxcroft boys, Rickey and Tommy, journeyed to Greeneville, Tenn. to visit Mr. Stanford's parents.

The boys were thrilled with a visit to the birthplace of Davey Crockett near Limestone, Tenn. where they saw the cabin in which Davey lived. Business took Mr. Stanford on to Oak Ridge so the rest of the family motored to Cincinnati for a visit with former neighbors before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Knapp have returned to their home on Valley Forge after spending a month at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The Knapps first flew to White Sulphur Springs with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Webster of Birmingham to attend a convention and then on to Florida where they were

FOX-CROFT WNF

The Foxcroft Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association met Monday at the Birmingham Community House for its annual guest and new member tea. The Christmas centerpiece on the tea table was fashioned by Mrs. M. F. Mallender. Hot punch and cookies were served.

Mrs. Clara Diabrow created many unusual Christmas flower arrangements after which names were drawn and the arrangements presented to winners.

Members of the Garden club will hold a Christmas greens workshop Dec. 13 at the Birmingham Community House from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Christmas decorations such as swags, wreaths, centerpieces, may be made with the help of several qualified members.

There will be a Christmas sale shop for those who wish to purchase supplies. A large variety of greens, decorations, materials and ideas will be available.

Busy getting settled in their new home in Westwood Manor are Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Milburn and children, David, 3½, and John, 11 months. The Milburns lived formerly in Detroit. Mrs. Milburn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lauder, of Foxcroft.

Milburn is a sales supervisor with the Associated Mutual hospital service. A graduate of the University of Michigan he is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Milburn also is a Mason and is on the board of governors of the University of Michigan Club of Detroit and on the board of trustees of Delta Tau Delta foundation.

Mrs. Milburn is a University of Michigan alumnae and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Both the Milburns enjoy bridge and many outdoor sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vines Leave for Month in Florida

The Floyd Vines of West Maple road are leaving tomorrow for a month of Florida sunshine. On the way south they are stopping in Pittsburgh to give grandmother Mrs. Charles Vines an opportunity to visit with the children.

Their Florida destination is Lake Worth, where they will spend Christmas with the children's maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Meins. There they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hartman of the Berkshires, who will fly down. All of the visitors will return home Jan. 1.

Mrs. T. L. Guarniere of West Dartmoor road gave a surprise birthday party for her husband on Nov. 25, invited to help ease the shock of adding another year were the Thomas Ferrills, the J.

the family tradition of spending Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Austin Landman. Mrs. Landman, sister of Mrs. Frank, entertains a number of her family yearly at this holiday dinner.

A luncheon last week marked the last of the farewells given for Mrs. Lyle Paris before she left with her children to join Mr. Paris in New York.

Mr. John Small of North Clubbury road invited Mrs. Harry White and Mrs. John K. McKee for a final visit with the honor guest in which they heard details of the new home which is almost completed for the family in the east. On Thursday the moving van was on hand to take over vacating the Paris home on East Dartmoor road.

Women of Bloomfield Farms enjoyed their association bridge party last week, and stocked to the committee members to express their appreciation. In view of its initial and her committee are already discussing plans for a dinner dance to be given soon after the holidays.
