Local Resident Is Honored At Plum Hollow Dinner Dance

Jerry Johnson, Plum Hollow Golf club's new president, was feted Saturday evening at the club's presidential ball. The gala dinner dance, which featured Earl Perkin's orchestra, had tables laden with tempting canapés, and a centerpiece of Jerry Johnson's initials carved in glistening ice.

Besides the Johnsons of East Millerway, there were the William Mauck, the Herbert McMillen of Gilbert Lake road, the Jack Sloan of Snowhoe circle, the Bob Duseaux of Carriage road and the Carl Gerlofsa.

The sight in Vienna of Hungarian refugees fleeing their homeland was the only depressing spot in the seven-week European tour of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubert. Obviously missing the fuel squeeze abroad they motored through parts of France, Austria, Germany, Yugoslavia and Switzerland. The Huberts, who sailed over on the United States, are expected to fly home from Frankfurt this week. The little Huberts, including dachshund Mitzi, remained behind in the Stoneleigh home.

A warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blackburn of Snowhoe circle. The Blackburn's, former Detroiters, have two sons, Jim, 8, and John, 5. The Robert Peabody's of Lane Lake are spending a few days this week in Grand Rapids attending the horticulture convention.

Tom Kuzma of Carriage road attended Michigan's football bust with Johnny Green and Sid Reynolds Monday evening. Mrs. Kuzma's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene English of Ohio, were recent guests at the Kuzma home.

In Lone Pine Village, Mike Hanna's new Italian motor scooter, a Lambretta, is modern, smooth riding, and a popular form of transportation. Biggest rosters of its smooth performance are Mike's parents, Fred and Millie Hanna, who sitting astride it one afternoon, went spinning over the country roads.

What dress designers are offering for holiday wear was seen Tuesday at St. Hugo's Altar guild fashion show. Mrs. Darrell Miller, Mrs. James Griffin and Mrs. Fred Hanna, all of Lone Pine Village, attended the affair which included bridge, at St. Hugo's school auditorium.

Mrs. William Cooper of Quarton road has been busy with the Women's TB committee work now that their Christmas sale is well under way. Former Bloomfield Village, Mrs. Warren Avis, gave a tea last week in her Grosse Pointe home for committee members.

John Nordstrom of Nordstrom drive is back from his hunting trip to the north country. John was on the two-week jaunt with friends from Royal Oak. His bag: a buck and a bear.

The Drayton McClellands of Quarton road are home, too, from their hunting trip up around Lewis- ton.

This area's group from Cranbrook's Christ Church had their November meeting, their fourth for the year, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Angevine of Carriage road. The Frank Rockwells of East Millerway and the G. A. Humphreys of Carriage road are among the members. Anyone interested is, of course, most welcome.

Judi Angevine's sorority party last week was to initiate Charlene Keller. Sixteen members of Beta Phi Sigma Tau from Hazelwood Hills high school attended.
