

Pembroke PTA Presents Play

Members of Pembroke PTA will turn actors and actresses to present a one act play for their meeting Monday at the school.

Entitled "Fresh Variable Winds," the play deals with a father-son relationship, as portrayed by Harold Hall and Larry Gilly. Mrs. J. E. Obrien plays the aunt who attempts to straighten out their troubles.

Mrs. La Burke enacts a sophisticated matron and Linda Haight plays the role of her daughter. Both Linda and Larry are students in fifth grade at the school.

Mrs. Lawrence Gilley is handling arrangements and organization of the skit. Mrs. W. O. Merrill, who works professionally with Will-O-Way Play house, is directing the performance.

Afterwards, there will be a group discussion dealing with family problems. It is expected that fathers, particularly, will find this meeting of top interest.

Birmingham Dogs In New York Show

Mixing dogs and pleasure results in a trip to New York City for Mrs. John E. Hall, Wilkes avenue, Birmingham. She and "Hornpipe Carcoea," the Hall's brown poodle puppy, left Saturday for the Westminster Kennel Club's annual dog show, where "Carcoea" is entered.

A second Hall entry, "Hornpipe Congo" is traveling to the show with his handler.

Mrs. Hall will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ehrlich, of New York's Riverside drive, during her ten-day visit.

Valentine Dolls Pair Off Partners

When Mrs. Lloyd Grinnell, La-tham road, Birmingham, entertained eight couples for dinner and bridge at the Detroit Golf club last week, she used a Valentine motif.

Red and white carnations decorated the table but it was the tables that stole the show, according to her guests. They were hand-made Valentine dolls, boys for the gentlemen and girl dolls for the ladies.

Hair and eyes of the dolls had to be matched up in couples, with the holders becoming bridge partners.

Township Players Make Their Plans

Membership meeting of the Township Players is scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 23 at 8:30 p.m. West Bloomfield Town hall, Orchard Lake road, is the place. Prospective members, regardless of address are welcome.

Future plans of the comparatively new group include private and public presentations, varied social activities and "workshop" programs. The latter will be combined with laboratory work in all departments of little theater activity, including production, direction, and stage fiction. Original play scripts by members will also be encouraged.

Luncheon Theme Valentine Motif
