Original Spring Creations
Modeled by Cubs Tonight

Fathers and Cubs of Pack B-23 will enjoy an advance showing of milady's spring fashions tonight as members of Den 10 saunter among them, modeling some original creations at their banquet at the Community House.

Mrs. Justin J. Spence will give the commentary on each costume. Credit is also due to Mrs. Herman Seabright who wrote the commentary and Mrs. Charles W. Brinkman who assisted in coordinating the show.

Mrs. Paul Moffett of Den 9 reports that Richard Pratt will introduce some eminent doctors who will say a few words of interest to the group. Dr. Exercise and Dr. East will be present and also several of their associates.

Thirty-three boys qualify for awards which will be presented tonight. Wolf badges go to Gregory French, James Johnson, Jeffrey Moffett, Chris Reinhardt, John Sevald and Bryce Whiteside.

Bear badges were earned by Robert Bickler, Michael Harty, Gary King, Carl Lund and Robert Roofner.
Ten boys will get their lion badge—Alan Johnson, Peter Millington, Mickey Phelan, Dick Samerbrun, Doug Rapp, John Vander Root and Scott Woodson. A total of 41 gold and silver arrow points were earned in the various ranks. Mrs. James Lahan, pack mother, was invited to take part in a Scout program at the Community Day school. David Todd, a student at the school who lives at 2791 Buckingham, was present in full Cub uniform and made the introduction. Mrs. Lahan explained Cub Scouts briefly and showed examples of handcraft. Her part of the program closed with a game as the last feature was a balloon breaking contest involving six scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Graefen of Graefield court announce the arrival of a daughter, Cynthia Susan Harper, born in Detroit on Feb. 1.

Mrs. Ernest Graefen, Mr. Graefen's mother, who has been spending several days at the Graefen home, left on Sunday to return to her home in Skokie, Ill. Mrs. Graefen's mother, Mrs. Herbert Matthews, arrived over the weekend from Lincolnwood, Ill. to make the acquaintance of her new granddaughter and to spend some time with her daughter and son-in-law and their two-year-old son Gary.

NEWCOMERS WELCOME

Former residents of Royal Oak, now residing at 1821 Graefield road, are Mr. and Mrs. F. Ellisworth Fish and their 21-month-old son Robert.
Mr. Fish attended Port Huron Junior college and is a writer for Campbell-Ewald in Detroit. He is a fishing enthusiast.

Mrs. Fish, for several years was a fashion illustrator for Crowley's in Detroit. She is presently doing free lancing and delving in fine arts just for fun. She has studied art at Case Tech, Wayne University and at the Society of Arts and Crafts in Detroit.

After spending the past year in Oklawaha, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wobrak and daughter Wendy, 20 months old, are now living at 750 Graefield court.
Mr. Wobrak, while in Oklawaha was a 1st Lieutenant with the Corps of Engineers, has been spending the past four years in service. The Wobraks returned to the States the middle of January. Mrs. Wobrak is the former Barbara Wolff of Birmingham.

HOME DEMONSTRATION

The Home Demonstration Unit will hold its February meeting Wednesday, Feb. 22, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Redmond, 754 Graefield court. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Arthur Hanson and Mrs. Alvie Smith.

Subject for the evening will be care and laundering of fabrics and the lesson will be presented by Mrs. M. W. Irvin and Mrs. Hugh Gologly, who received their instruction on the subject from Frieda Bennett, an agent for Home Demonstration Units of Oakland County.

Included in the lesson will be a discussion of soaps, and detergents; washing of the new "miracle fabrics" on the market, and fabric combinations. There will also be a group discussion and members having special laundering problems and questions are invited to bring them to the meeting. Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Gologly will attempt to solve them.

Mrs. John Finan is the newly appointed secretary for the unit, taking over the duties of Mrs. William Brown who recently moved from Birmingham.

The newly appointed vice president is Mrs. John Leavitt, who succeeds Mrs. L. S. Parker. Mrs. Leavitt recently attended the Royal Oak district meeting where she worked on plans for the 1956-1957 program for the unit.

The unit would like to again remind everyone that meetings are open to anyone desiring to attend, and also that anyone interested in attending a particular meeting may do so without becoming a member of the unit. If attendance is anticipated it is requested that a co-hostess be notified. For the Feb. 22nd meeting, Mrs. Arthur Hanson, MI 4-6954 should be notified.

Dessert Meetings For Junior League

Birmingham's Junior League will vary its usual type of meeting by separating into small groups. They feel that this practice, followed once a year, offers an opportunity to discuss work and progress matters more thoroughly. Dessert meetings will be held at several homes on Feb. 21 in keeping with this plan. Those opening their homes for these gatherings are Mrs. William Breach, Mrs. Uli B. Grannis, Jr., Mrs. William H.
