HARRIET HENDERSON—MI 6-4069

Last Monday afternoon 14 neighbors of Mrs. Matthew McDonald were invited to a Valentine luncheon in her home on Parkhurst drive. Mrs. McDonald was anxious to have her party before the Lenten season and also to introduce two recent arrivals, Mrs. Henry Sparrer and Mrs. Eric Boehm, both of Lahser road, to her neighborhood.

Seated around the large dining room table, centered with red carnations, were Mrs. John Hobart, Mrs. Robert Straley, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. F. O. Lawrence, Mrs. Clarence Behm, Mrs. Archie McCall, Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, Mrs. John Woodside and Mrs. Ed Knost all living on Parkhurst and Mrs. James Harbison and Mrs. Lewis Deamond who live on Sherwood drive.

Southern hospitality was quite evident yesterday in the East Greenway home of Mrs. Charles Dalgleish. Twelve friends were invited to a morning coffee get-together to meet the guest of honor, Mrs. John Boone, visiting in Detroit from Nashville, Tenn.

Seated at the table just off the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wink and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason both of Old Mill road, Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Dalgleish were school friends at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Berkshire guests were Mrs. Robert Wink, Mrs. Robert Reason and Mrs. Robert Henderson, all of Old Mill road.

BROWNIE 'SITUPONS'
Brownie Troop 682 under the enthusiastic guidance of their leader, Mrs. Charles L. Helmsman, of Bradford drive, and the assistance of Mrs. James Traub of Jackson Park lane, and Mrs. Omer Peidi, made some things called "situpons".

WANTED to Locate . . .
Specimen (well-shaped) Evergreens, Shrubs and Flowering Trees in the larger sizes.
If some of your shrubs and trees have grown too large for their present location, they may be just what our clients need for specimen plantings.
