

Formal Attire Donned For DAC Keglers Party

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the Detroit Athletic Club went to the DAC Bowlers' annual formal party last Saturday, Jan. 28, to help make the fête a huge success. The festivity, given each year to honor the wives, drew an approximate 600 total.

It was a merry affair, from the 6 o'clock cocktail hour right through the bowling at 11 p.m. until after midnight—and it's only at this annual frolic that the feminine contingent may kegle on the DAC alleys.

Each segment of the program was a highlight. Dinner was served in the Pontchartrain and ladies dining rooms and the gymnasium, each league having its own long table.

THE GYM was the scene of a gala floor show and dancing. There was more dancing in the Abbey grill adjoining the bowling alley—the keggers, all in formal dress, incidentally, alternated their bowling and dancing.

Among the Birmingham-Bloomfieldites at the party were the William F. Rogers, the Robert E. Hubers, the Donald Bays, the James

K. Campbells, the W. B. Wardles, Dr. and Mrs. Roy E. Hawkinson, the Fred E. Bigelows, the Judge W. Beardens, the Richard S. Kelleys.

The list continues with the J. Robert Moobys, the J. A. Frosts, the Robert L. Stones, the Nelson Mulligans, the David W. Logans, Jr., the Gordon D. Daughartys, Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Belts, the Robert W. Muzzys, the Fred E. Sheldons, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Holmes, the William J. Rileys, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr.

MR. AND MRS. Arthur W. Roehm of Franklin were there, and Mrs. Roehm brought her own bowling ball and shoes for a bit of kegging. Mr. and Mrs. Lester V. Grien went in to the party from Bloomfield Township and from Oxford were the William K. Mandins.

The Arthur B. McWoods of Bloomfield Hills and the Asa Sherwoods of Southfield township attended a cocktail fête given by the William G. Sieberts at their Grospe Point home before this group of 30 proceeded on to the Bowlers Party at the DAC.
