Mrs. Jack Clemens Returns From New York, Montreal Trip

Mrs. Jack Clemens of Auburn drive returned last week from an exciting and dazzling trip to New York City and Montreal. Mrs. Clemens and her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Zuefle flew to New York where they saw "Pajama Game" and "Plain and Fancy," visited a different nightclub each evening and woke up early one morning to see the Gary Moore show.

Then on to Montreal where they visited clothing manufacturers and saw sweaters and other garments made from the first step to the finished product.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gelsler, 18105 Birchwood, have his mother, Mrs. Mollie Gelsler visiting them for what they hope will be a long visit. On Sunday, Mrs. Gelsler planned a family birthday dinner. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powers and three daughters, Christine, Diane and Linda, came out from Detroit to spend the day and wish Grandpa a happy birthday.

The 20 gals in the 32900 Arlington block had one of their frequent get-togethers Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Mitzfeld, and honored Mrs. Robert McCartney with a stork shower.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burda, former Detroiters are now living in their new home at 16190 Beechwood with their three-year-old son, Ronald Benson and six-month-old daughter, Bena.

Mrs. Burda is anxious to get settled and will welcome to her home theatre work in Birmingham. She is very interested in dramatics and has always been active in some group. She used to sing on OCLF before she married.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arnold from Park Forest, Ill., are new residents at 32478 Madison. They moved here last Wednesday with their son, Howard, 2 1/2, and 1 1/2 year old daughter, Joey.

Howard received his Bachelors degree from Amherst and his Masters from Harvard Business school. He is with the Carboloid division of General Electric.

Former residents of Auburn drive, Frank and Margaret Jappell wrote to a few of their former neighbors to spread the news of the adoption of a daughter, Judith Ann.

They are now living in Northridge, Calif. and had just finished work on the addition of a pool and patio before the arrival of the baby.

DANCING PARTY

John Keiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Keiser, 17851 Beechwood, celebrated his 12th birthday last week with a hot dog roast and dance in the recreation room of his home.

Young escorts were Bob Beck, Danny Johnston, David Campbell, John Rhoton, Bruce Kirk, Doug Booz, Frank Green and host, John Weiler.

Sally Streby Invites Friends To Weekend at Hunting Lodge

Sally Streby of Forest Lane treated her friends to a weekend of winter sports at the Streby's hunting lodge between East Tawas and Oscoda.

Located in true wilderness, the nearest neighbor is two and one-half miles away. No electricity or running water gave the weekend a challenge. Wild deer running in the woods was the first ever seen by the group.

Saturday, Sally took her party over to Silver Valley, a winter resort at East Tawas for skiing and tobogganing. Included in the young set were Stan Madison, Jerry Grassias, Mary Ann Croteau, Jim Westbury, John Bondie, Janet Henry of Ferndale and Diane and Phil Pixley of Highland Park and Bill Streby. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Streby had in their party, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pixley.

Lions, tigers, marching elephants, thrill to the trapeze artist, popcorn, peanuts and ice cream will be in order for Cub Scout Den 19 when Mrs. Ben Robertson, Jr. takes her den to the Shrine Circus, Saturday.

Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Martin Streby, both of Forest Lane will have their Scouts join with Pack B-2 at attending the circus.

Hockey Team Organized By Local Sixth Grade Boys

A number of Franklin sixth grade boys have organized a hockey team and are engaging competition on Rotter's pond on Saturdays after practicing two or three nights a week.

Three games played against a team of Barnum school students have been tied and they won the one game they played with a group from Quanton school.

Boys of mixed ages in the Colony Hill neighborhood are playing hockey among themselves. Dr. Harley's pond and others from throughout the Franklin area may be found playing hockey every week end on the pond off Orinoco circle.

SKATING PARTY

Girl Scouts and Brownies have had more skating and tobogganing this winter than ever before. They skate on the Harley and Orinoco ponds, on Meadow Lake and at the Brown Derby outdoor rink.

Susan Turner and Helen Hietta were co-hostesses to their third group skating party last Sunday afternoon on Meadow Lake. Hot cocoa and other refreshments were served.

The month's social meeting will be held Feb. 21 at the home of Mrs. Robert McAfee, 28764 Stouland for a 12:30 potluck lunch.
