MRS. RUSSELL T. COSTELLO Will Head Panel For Delta Zetas

When Oakland Group II of Delta Zetas meets tonight at the Auburn drive home of Mrs. Harold Stahl, Mrs. Russell T. Costello, the society's national president, will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Costello, who lives at Pine Lake, will lead a panel discussion of Delta Zeta policies on national and local levels. Other members of the panel will include Mrs. Edward Bergman, Michigan province director, and Mrs. Hugh Albrecht, state chairman.

Mrs. Costello is the wife of neuro-psychologist, Dr. Russell T. Costello, Past president of Wayne County Medical auxiliary, she was for many years a psychiatric case worker in recorder's court, Detroit, and has done private case work for psychiatrists. She was also chairman of the national legislative committee to the auxiliary of the Academy of Neurology.

Alumnae Hear Council Head

The University of Michigan Alumnae in Birmingham will hold their midwinter meeting at the home of Mrs. George Heidem, 449 Henley, Feb. 28th at 8 p.m.

Many of the recent graduates are daytime employed and this occasion is being planned especially for them.

Speaker will be Mrs. Ruth Beyers from Ann Arbor who is the new executive secretary for the alumnae of Michigan. She will be presented by Mrs. Russell Strickland of Bloomfield Hills who is the president of the Alumnae Council for the entire country.

Mrs. Benjamin Wheeler who is the business manager for the Women's League will report on the new plans for alumnae hospitality in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. T. C. Evans is in charge of refreshments and will be assisted by Mrs. H. C. Heym, Mrs. J. C. Briegel, and Mrs. S. F. Leahy.

Three Flags Award Citizenship Pins

"Pinks" from a very pale to a deep shade blended with white provided a colorful setting for the Three Flags Chapter, DAR, tea last week at the Meadowood home of Mrs. Lyle Brown in Lathrup Village.

Beneath the white linen embroidered tablecloth was a pale pink one. Pink and white snapdragons in a boat-shaped arrangement were flanked by tall pink tapers in crystal candleabra. Silver tea and coffee services were at either end.

Regent, Mrs. Harry Alger, conducted a business meeting after which the chapter held its annual patriotic tea.

ON THIS OCCASION four senior girls who were voted best citizen in their school by classmates and faculty, were awarded the Good Citizenship pin from Three Flags chapter for 1956.

Girls with their mothers as guests were Kay Koval from Southfield high; Lois Ayres from Farmington high; Havilla Wiseman from Milford high and Shirley Woolgin, Walled Lake high.

East Regent Mrs. Levey Hooper gave a talk on "What the Daughters of the American Revolution Do" and Mrs. Raymond Bodinus addressed the girls and their mothers and presented the citizenship pins.

The girls are also eligible to attend the annual state conference as guests of the Michigan DAR where they will compete as a state winner. State winner will receive a $100 war bond.

Mrs. Robert Vint and Mrs. Conrad Bloom assisted Mrs. Brown in serving tea.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
