Travelers Avoid Hurricane By Driving 350 Extra Miles

Dorothy Zateff EL 6-2039 Mildred Caddell EL 6-9645

Mrs. Charles Thompson and daughter Joyce and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Thompson of Magnolia, flew down to visit the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hizer of Estero Island near Ft. Myers Beach.

Driving back the eastern route through 10 states and some 350 extra miles they were avoiding a hurricane that was rattling capers in Alabama. Returning home on Monday, Feb. 20, they were accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Dossor of Magnolia.

Mrs. Dana Norton and Jean and John of Bloomfield drove to East Lansing last Saturday where they spent Parents' Day with daughter Nancy at MSU. Mrs. Norton was a guest at the Phi Mu sorority tea in the afternoon while the rest of the family took in the Illinois-State basketball game. They were Nancy's guests in the evening at a banquet.

The Frank J. McDonalds Return from Vacation Land

Sporting beautiful tans when they arrived at Willow Run airport last week were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McDonald of Oak Hills drive. Mrs. McDonald spent a month at the Ridgeview apartment hotel in Ft. Lauderdale and Mr. McDonald joined his wife for the last half of the vacation.

The McDonalds spent part of every day relaxing on the beach enjoying the perfect weather they had. They went to Hialeah several times and attended the opening performance of Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy at the fabulous Fontainblau hotel at Miami Beach. Mrs. McDonald met a school friend from Swampscott, Mass. while in Lauderdale.

Janet McCall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie B. McCall of Parkhurst drive, will be formally initiated into Alpha Chi Omega early in March.

Janet has applied for entrance into the dentistry school to become a dental hygienist. She is now enrolled in the liberal arts school.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Purton Jr. and daughter-in-law of the Kingsley Purtons of Red Maple Lane have moved back to this area, after having lived in Phoenix, Ariz. since they were married.

Mr. Purton has recently resigned from the air corps. His rank was first lieutenant and he was a jet instructor at Luke field. Both the Jr. and Sr. Purtons are mighty proud of Kingsley Purton II, one of Donald and Patricia Lofft; Eugene Henry, son of Ludwig and Eileen Roger; Michael Brian, son of Gerald and Maureen Delaney, and Edward Steve, son of Edward and Marilyn Butcher.

Two "coffeees" were given recently to start the collection campaign for the Community House. The first was last Friday in the Birmingham road home of Mrs. John Long-

Newcomers and next-door neighbors are the Gligliottis and the Servos of Berkshire drive in Westchester Village. Dr. and Mrs. David Gligliotti and their five children moved from the east side of Detroit.

The children are Paula 18, in her first year at Providence Hospital nursing school, Linda 12 and Debra 10, who go to Bloomfield Villages school, and Lois who is almost three and David 15.

Dr. Gligliotti is a Radiologist at Providence hospital. He was a student at Wayne University and belongs to Phi Beta Phi professional fraternity. He is a member of the state and national boards of Radiologists. The Gligliottis are home movie enthusiasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Servo and eight month old Robert Jr. came from the northwest section of Detroit. He is a route owner with Twin Fines dairy and attended Wayne University. The Servos love to play cards and Mr. Servo likes to swim.

She asked Mrs. S. W. Morrel of Oak Hills drive and Mrs. Almon of Oakford drive Mrs. Almon is co-captain in charge of this area. The Community House drive will be conducted March 5.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Schubert just became residents of the Berkshires when they moved into their new ranch home on Lincoln road. Dr. Schubert has been practicing chiropody and has been doing foot surgery for three years in this area.

The Schuberts have a three year old son and previously lived on the west side of Detroit. Dr. Schubert was a student at Wayne university and also at the Illinois College of Chiropody, where he was awarded the highest honors in the state of Michigan.

He is assistant superintendent of Sunday school at the Lutheran Divinity church in Detroit. Both Schuberts belong to the church choir and Mrs. Schubert has done singing for many different occasions. She enjoys doing all types of sewing and fancy work. Dr. Schubert likes to play golf and swim.

On hand for the Birmingham country club's Valentine dance were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Andrews of Hillcrest road. Their guests for dinner and dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buggs, of Birmingham.

Members of Girl Scout troop 381 have accumulated some happy memories during the month of February. Accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Gerald Jaynt, their co-leader, Mrs. M. D. Douglas, Mrs. Herman Myaing and Mrs. Marvin Cline, they have attended both a Detroit Symphony performance and the Hollywood Ice Review.

For Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shank, their 13th wedding anniversary called for celebrations. With the Harry Chesebroughs, of Lathrup, and the Herman Smiths, of Birmingham, they dined at the DAC Saturday, Feb. 11, and followed this up with a family "Sunday dinner out" with children Kenneth and Kathryn the next day.

Last Saturday, the Shanks entertained the Chesebroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Exner, and the Peter Gollittes, of Grosse Pointe, at a dinner party in the home.

On Feb. 13, 40 members of the Girls' World Friendship group of the First Methodist church met in Calla Reasner's Mayfair lane home to view pictures taken in the Holy Land by Mrs. Hugh Hemphill. Among those who attended were Judy and Ruth Kalmbach and Marjorie Stiebaether.
