

Women Voters' Lansing Trip

Originally, a small group from Birmingham's League of Women Voters planned to go on the Lansing trip. Interest in the trip spread rapidly, however, and 70 women are now scheduled to make the tour on two Greyhound buses next Tuesday.

Starting out from the Birmingham terminal at 8:45 a.m., they will pick up more passengers at the Franklin Post Office, then go on to arrive in Lansing about 11.

ONCE THERE, they will first have their choice of visiting committees or taking a guided tour of the capitol. Everyone will reassemble for luncheon in the new civic center.

Luncheon guests of the League will be Mrs. G. Menman Williams, L. G. and Mrs. Philip Hart, Sen. William Broomfield and Rep. Richard Van Dusen. Sen. Broomfield will speak on the topic, "Constitutional Revision."

After luncheon, the group will visit the state legislature session.

Birmingham Student Therapist at Ford

Gwen Steele, of Birmingham, is working on an occupational therapy affiliation at the Henry Ford hospital, Detroit.

Miss Steele, a senior in occupational therapy at Western Michigan college, Kalamazoo, will be there until Apr. 28.

Nine months of such affiliation, in addition to four years' academic work, are required to qualify for the degree of registered occupational therapist.

Triple Romance Marks Village Players' Show

All the world loves a lover, the Birmingham Village Players so much so that they have arranged for a triple romantic interest—one bemused pair for each act—when the three-act F. H. Herbert comedy "The Moon Is Blue" is produced Saturday evening at the Playhouse for members' entertainment.

In the triple-threat romance the seats of love are sown atop the Empire State building by Patty, in act one, played by Mrs. John A. Parks, Jr. and Don, by Bud Crichton.

It buds in act two between another Patty portrayed by Mrs. William A. McCall, and a Don played by Irving W. Evans.

WHEN LOVE flowers in act three the Milt Manleys will be seen in the boy and girl roles.

As customary when boy meets girl, there is another man around. This part of the Triangle, David, will be played by Robert W. Keller, Franklin Butler, and Richard H. Adams.

It takes Patty's father, Michael O'Neill, until act two to arrive on the scene briefly, Norman B. Gustafson, playing Michael, is, therefore, the only member of the cast who hasn't two counterparts.

A PROMPTER has been assigned to each act. Holding lines in act one will be Mrs. Emsie Smith Allen; in act two, Mrs. Irving W. Evans; and in act three, Mrs. Robt. W. Bills.

Mrs. Lane Bishop, make-up chairman, will decide at Friday night's dress rehearsal on how make-up squads should be assigned.

Afterglow, a time for refreshments and conversation about the play, will be handled by Miss Shirley Hersey and Mrs. Howard C. McDonald.

Senator Potter's Secretary Wed in Presbyterian Rites

Senator Charles E. Potter's secretary, Sadonna Campbell, 4357 Robinwood, exchanged vows with Robert E. Davis at an eight o'clock ceremony Friday night. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the candlelight ceremony in the First Presbyterian church, Birmingham, followed by a reception in the church parlors.

Senator Potter was in Cheboygan and delayed his return trip to Washington to attend his secretary's wedding, however, inclement weather canceled all plane flights and he was unable to attend.

SADONNA chose a pearl gray lace ensemble with a seafume sash in underling and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Her sister, Lucia Stoll, of Toledo, Ohio, wore rose lace and carried American Beauty roses.

Edward L. Baker, postmaster of Detroit, was best man. Seating the guests were Harold Gilbert of Detroit and W. B. Dean of Royal Oak.

The couple flew to Jamaica Saturday morning for their honeymoon.

Elected President Of Detroit Club

In club elections, held on campus last week, Burke Coeney was voted president of the Detroit Club of Notre Dame college. He is the son of Mrs. Burke E. Coeney, Cranbrook road, Bloomfield.

Third largest geographical organization on campus, the club comprises more than 200 members from Detroit and suburban areas. Seven are from Birmingham.

Besides social functions in Detroit and at the university, the group aids stricken polo patients with physical therapy work at Northern Indiana Children's hospital in South Bend.

Coffee Hostess

Captain of her area for the Community House drive, Mrs. W. N. Haas, 1608 Maryland, Birmingham, was hostess at a coffee for soldiers.

Her co-captain is Mrs. C. Bobel.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
