THE HERB STORY

BASIL, in his LAVENDER waistcoat, was, ANISE, a cad when you think how CARAWAY was SWEET MARJORAM (a DILL if we ever seen one) when he gave her some HOREHOUND candy as BALM for having thrown HYSOOP at her. As THYME passes he will RUE the day he became CHIVE (pronounced chivy) with ROSEMARY who was looking so dainty in her SAFFRON sheath and PARSLEY we hope he gets a BORAGE of cabbage and will not SAVORY the bitter gall of WORMWOOD.

By Herb Sage

Note:—This goes to show how easily even herbs can become corny. Anyway we have the HERB POTS in now... the ones you have been waiting for so anxiously.

We are really laughing at you now. We told you there would be a blizzard. The joke is really on you... because YOU have the snow and ice and WE still have the ICE REM and SNOW SHOVELS. HA! HA! ha!.....

To get back to the HERB POTS a moment. We really should try and do a little selling. We love to have a bit of fun in these ads but it doesn't leave much room for the presentation of serious thoughts.

At this time of year, we feel that people should be serious. Christmas is over, the New Year is showprow due to the "returns" and the first month's reports. Robert E. Lee's birthday slipped by almost unnoticed and Easter is close at hand. Among the serious questions that arise is this one:—"What shall I get for prizes?"

Well, this is a tough question but we think we can help you. First, we would mention that we carry suitable—decorously suitable—prizes for, not only Bridge, but for Canasta, Flinch, Slap-Jack, Acey-Ducey and even Hi, Lo, Jack-in-the-Game. The items we carry can be especially selected with the game to be played in mind (your mind, mind you).

For instance, let's leave the HERB POTS for Bridge prizes. Then we could suggest RED WIK-FED POTS for Hearts! CANBERRA ITALIAN WARE POTTERY for Canasta; DRIVEWAY MARKERS for players who get off the line in Slap-Jack; FIRE LIGHTERS for those who get hot in a hot game of Hi, Lo; FLOWER POT DISGUISES for the bluffers and PRUNING SHEARS for the guy who, after playing Acey-Ducey for three hours, comes up with, "Let's play a little Strip Poker with the deuces, one-eyed Jacks, two-eyed Queens and three-eyed Kings wild."

Now for this last fellow we carry NO-NIBL RAT TRAPS and a sixteen-pound, two-bladed MATTOCK. (Ladies, our phone number is MI 4-1133.)

We wish, seriously mind you, to remind you, mind you, that we have by no means exhausted our list of items suitable for this serious time of the year.

Seriously yours

His Favorite Investment!

"It's the wisest motor car investment I ever made!"
 "I've owned a great many makes, but Cadillac wins my vote as the finest investment of them all!"
 "In my book, it is the best dollar investment on the highway today!"
 We can't tell you how many times we've heard it. In fact, Cadillac's value and economy have become favorite topics of conversation among Cadillac owners everywhere.
 And their sentiments are based on some very substantial facts about the "car of cars."
 First of all, there's the economy of buying a

Cadillac. The average Cadillac car is surprisingly modest in its original cost... and many models are actually priced competitively with the so-called "medium-priced" makes.
 Then there is the economy of operating a Cadillac. Cadillac's gasoline mileage is simply phenomenal for a car of its size and stature... and its dependability is truly extraordinary.
 And, finally, there is the economy that comes from Cadillac's great resale. In resale markets all across the land, the Cadillac car traditionally returns a higher percentage of its original cost than any other automobile built and sold in America.

And consider what generous dividends Cadillac owners receive from their investments.
 ... the great pride they derive from Cadillac's beauty and luxury... the daily pleasure that comes with Cadillac's performance and comfort... and the personal satisfaction they take in Cadillac's wonderful reputation.
 We suggest that you pay us a visit soon and investigate the latest and finest Cadillac investment of them all.
 We have the car... and the keys... and the facts—and we'll be happy to give you all three at any time. Why not make it today?
